Posse Routs Piutes in Utah Clash

Renegade Band Makes Last Stand In Wild Mountain Canyon

SCOUTS DISCOVER TRAP OF INDIANS

Whites Dodge Ambush of Enemy and Capture Band In Brief Fight

(By United Press Leased Wire) SALT LAKE CITY, March 23.—

One Indian was killed and ten captured in what government agents declare will probably be the last battle of the last Indian war in the United States. The engagement took place about twenty miles west of Blanding last night. The Indians lay in ambush but the whites settlers posse sent out scouts and located their exact position. The posse surrounded the band and at a given signal opened fire.

The Indians returned the shots and there, in the widest part of Utah, under conditions exactly the same as in the days of General Custer and Buffalo Bill, was fought one of the most picturesque engagements of the west.

Makes Last Stand

The renegades made a firm stand but ten of them were gradually driven against the cliffs. One Plute brave known as Charley, became enraged as he saw that the band was about to be captured. He stood upon a rock and fired into the posse.

A cowboy from one of the ranches sighted his rifle and shot. Charley waved his hands wildly in the air, gave a war cry and pitched forward upon his face, dead. At last the Indians gave a sign of surrender and the ten were surrounded. They were ordered to come out in single file and throw down their rifles.

Surrender Guns

They came forward sulkily and were made prisoners. Guards then marched the Plutes in single file toward Blanding where fifty other renegades are held in the school house together with several squaws and papooses. Several of the posse are scouring the mountains and canyons for such of the renegades as may be clinging together in an organized band.

For twenty-four hours before the big fight, Navajo Indian runners passed between the posse and the renegades with white flags at tempting to make peace. It was said that a part of Old Posey's gang was willing to surrender their lives would be protected. The Navajos were neutral in the matter and are a peaceful tribe.

Ends Reign of Terror

The Indians declared, following the battle, that they believed that they could out-general the white posse in the hills as they knew every inch of the country. Blanding citizens said it was high time a severe lesson was given the Indians who have terrorized southwestern Utah for twenty-five years by making periodical outbreaks.

Further details of the battle and the names of the captured Piutes have not come out of Blanding. United States Marshal J. Ray Ward is somewhere on the scene but has not been heard from since his departure from Salt Lake.

Old Dutch's Boy is said to have eluded the posse. It was Old Dutch's Boy and Bishop's Boy who started the trouble with the Indians. The youths robbed a sheep camp and when the Plutes hung about the town of Blanding on the day of the trial making threats that they would raze the town and scalp every man, woman and child in it the youths were convicted. Later Sheriff Oliver went to the Indians' cell to give them their dinner.

Both attacked him and under protection of the fire from the Indians, made their escape in a spectacular manner. The alarm was sent out and soon all parts of the state was in arms and in pursuit of the Indians.

Brave Ice Jam Flood To Rescue Four Periled by Torrent

SIOUX CITY, Iowa, March 23.—Braving the treacherous waters in the flooded Missouri river on a raft, two deputy sheriffs today rescued four men marooned on Duncan's Island.

A fifth man refused to leave the island, deciding to take his chances with the flood threatening momentarily to inundate his place of refuge, rather than attempt the perilous trip through the crashing ice gorges.

An ice jam five miles below the city, backed up waters of the river to flood stage.

Hundreds of spectators lined the low side of the river watching the deputies as they defied death in reaching the island.

NEW ARRESTS MADE IN BIG BOOZE RAID

LOS ANGELES, March 23.—

Two new arrests, declared to be the "biggest yet," were made today by Prohibition Chief H. M. Dolley today in connection with the smuggling of "movie booze," which brought about nine arrests at Long Beach yesterday.

One of the two men arrested was Oscar Lund of Hollywood, former secretary to Earle Remington, murdered clubman and alleged liquor operator.

A man named Jack Miller, said to be secretary and treasurer of one of the biggest wholesale liquor concerns in Vancouver, was the other.

Alexander B. Stewart, president of a Long Beach cannery company, who was arrested yesterday, obtained his release by depositing $25,000 bail.

FOIL 2 WOMEN IN L. A. JAIL BREAK PLOT

(By United Press Leased Wire) LOS ANGELES, March 23.—

Two women prisoners in the city jail today attempted to stage a jail break after attacking Matron Maude E. Pritt with an iron bar, knocking her unconscious.

The break was foiled by other women prisoners who were angry at the brutal treatment given the matron. In the struggle before she was rendered unconscious nearly all of her clothes were torn off. A near riot ensued.

Elizabeth Castro and Molly Vergo were the women attempting to break out, according to jail officials. They were placed in solitary confinement and charges will be brought against them.

JEWISH BROTHERS LOSE THEIR MONEY

CHICAGO, March 21.—

The brothers Blattstein—Able, David and Morris—conduct a jewelry store in Blue Island avenue. The Blattstein brothers tried nobody, not even themselves. In fact, it took all three of them to open the store safe. Able, president of the company, was in possession of the combination of the outside door. Between him and the cash boxes stood David, who worked the combination of the intermediate doors, and the ultimate combination was known only by Morris.

This morning when the brothers Blattstein opened their store they found the safe had been robbed, but the doors had not been opened and there was no sign of an explosion.

When Sergeant Thomas Kelly of the Maxwell street station went to investigate he found that a fourth brother, Louis, had sold Able and David and Morris a second hand safe. And it had a concrete bottom. Live all cheap sales. Somebody had dumped the safe over and knocked out the bottom, taking most of the firm's stock. Louis didn't have any combination, but Able thinks maybe he had a sledge hammer.

GROCER LEIS FOES DODGE BIG LOSS

Piggly Wiggly Man Sets $100 Price On Stock to End Battle

(By United Press Leased Wire) MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 23.—

Clarence Saunders announced he is willing to settle with the "shorts" on Piggly Wiggly stock at $100 a share. A telegram announcing the offer was sent to the New York stock exchange this morning, he said.

Saunders' statement proposing settlement, as given out here, follows:

"I propose for a settlement to-day of all accounts of Piggly Wiggly Stores, Inc., class A stock, and I will furnish this stock upon application for same to the National Bank of Commerce in New York on payment of $100 a share."

Quotations in Piggly Wiggly over brokers' counters at the opening ranged from $110 to $135 a share. Several trades in odd lots were reported at this price.

In explaining his compromise offer today, Saunders said he wanted to treat all the brokers alike, that he wanted to avoid the trouble of court suits and that he would be fair and give them all a chance to settle on the same basis.

"I am in the grocery business," Saunders said. "I am not a stock trader. I have no intention of going to New York to fight any financial battles on Wall street. I am going to stay right in Memphis and conduct my grocery business."

Saunders refused to discuss the matter further after the filing of his telegram and said he would make no more statements until he had received an answer to his wire.

NEW YORK, March 23.—Many bears caught short when Clarence Saunders of Memphis, Tenn., trapped them in their raid in Piggly Wiggly stock have settled on terms of the latter at $150 a share, E. W. Bradford, counsel here for Saunders, declared.

Brokers said that shorts who refused to pay that price would fight Saunders' demands in court. Stock still undelivered by shorts was estimated today at between 6,000 and 15,000 shares.

Following Saunders' announcement, Piggly Wiggly stock dropped in over the counter sales. The maximum reaction was to $3 offered, 100 asked.

Brokers short of Piggly Wiggly were understood to be preparing to accept Saunders' offer. In earnings statement, the Piggly Wiggly corporation, owner of patent rights of the Piggly Wiggly system of merchandising and one third interest in Piggly Wiggly Stores, Incorporated, showed today a net profit for the year ending December 31, 1922, of $663,736 against $249,295 in 1921, and a surplus after dividends were paid of $477,890 as compared with $35,369 for the previous year.

TWO WOMEN ELECTED.

MOOREHEAD, Minn., March 23.—Election of two women to office at Dilworth featured the village and township elections in Clay county. The women are the first elected to village offices in the county. Both women, however, were elected to different offices than those for justice of the peace and elected her from a field of ten. The county nurse proposition apparently lost. The county commissioners refused this year to make an appropriation for the county nurse and put the matter up to the voters.

STRAW DERBIES APPEAR

DENVEN, March 23.—Derbians in the downtown district, bundled up against the snow and cold, caught this in a clothing store window, wiled with straw hats: "Panamas and straws half price today."

Boys Discover Pistol Believed Used In Mystery Murder Case

LOS BANOS, Calif., March 23.—Small boys at play in a wrecked automobile yesterday turned up one of the first definite clues in the mysterious murder of Harry Bartell here last Sunday when they found an automatic pistol believed to have been used in the murder.

The boys carried the pistol home and their father turned the weapon over to Constable George Soper.

Several shots were fired by the officers who found the firing pin left marks on the exploded shells just as was made on the empty shell found at the spot where Bartell was killed.

The officers now incline to a belief that if the identity of the owner of this pistol is ascertained that they will also know the identity of the slayer.

LEADERS IN PARTY SOLID FOR HARDING

G. O. P. Chiefs Predict President To Have Little Opposition in Coming Campaign.

(Copyright, 1923, by United Press)

WASHINGTON, March 23.—Republican political leaders throughout the country are virtually unanimous for the re-nomination of President Harding, a poll of the Republican national committee by the United Press showed today.

Every reply received in response to a request for comment on Mr. Harding's candidacy brought a prediction that the president would be re-nominated with little opposition. Likewise the committee made optimistic prophecies as to his chances for election.

Many stated that delegations from their states would be solidly pledged to Mr. Harding.

The president has the strong support of committeemen from the thickly populated states with their big blocks of votes. Among those are Secretary of War Weeks, Massachusetts, Senator Pendergast, Pennsylvania, Charles D. Hillis, New York, and R. K. Hynicka, Ohio.

OPEN NEW WAR ON RADICALS IN AMERICA

(By United Press Leased Wire)

WASHINGTON, March 23.—Federal prosecution of twelve alleged Communist leaders in this country and the investigation of the activities of nine other persons were asked of Attorney General Daugherty today by five anti-Communist organizations.

Formal charges were filed with department of justice agents against the twelve leaders by the organizations which declared that federal action was taken to "cut the line of communications and supply between Red leaders in this country and the Communists at Moscow."

Heading the list of those against whom charges were filed was William Z. Foster, now on trial at Grand Rapids, Mich., in connection with alleged Communist activities. Organizations signing the complaints were the American Constitutional League of Maryland; the Massachusetts Public Interests League; the Women's Constitutional League of Newport News, Va., and the Women's Patriot Publishing company.

FILM STAR LOSEC SUIT.

ALBANY, N. Y., March 23.—Mary Pickford today lost her suit for $3,000 against Watson, Berlin and Snyder, theatrical producers. The film star claimed illegal publication of her photograph and name in connection with a song entitled "Daddy Long Legs."

SPRING FEVER CASE

BERKELEY, March 23.—Carl Eckhart couldn't stand the spring weather and fell asleep by the roadside. A passerby pronounced him dead and an ambulance came. Carl awoke, however, as he was being loaded onto the stretcher.

Adm. Sims to Ignore Solons' Attacks In Berkeley Speech

BERKELEY, Calif., March 23.—While Rear Admiral W. S. Sims remained entirely quiet, President David P. Barrows of the University of California today took up the defense of the famed naval officer who was attacked in the state legislature at Sacramento as "pro-British" and "un-American."

Sims will speak late today at the University charter day exercises but he reiterated that his speech will contain no reference to the attacks which have been made upon him.

"I am not aware of any incident in Admiral Sims' career which could be construed to justify your language," declared Dr. Barrows in a public reply to a letter from members of the state legislature demanding that his invitation to Sims to speak at the university be withdrawn.

MOVIE STAR IS JAILED AS SPEEDER

Gladys Walton Must Serve Three Days for Traveling 33 Miles Per Hour in City.

LOS ANGELES, March 23.—Gladys Walton, film star, was today sentenced to serve three days in jail for speeding.

Her request that she be allowed to go home and get her old clothes was granted.

She will begin serving her sentence late today.

She was convicted of driving a machine 33 miles an hour in the city limits.

HOLDS FARMERS FACING LABOR SHORTAGE

(By United Press Leased Wire)

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 23.—The American farmer, first to be hit by the period of depression, will be the last in line receiving benefits of approaching prosperity.

Big business, riding the prosperity wave, is draining the labor market and the farmer will be short of hired help for his spring work.

This was the farm labor situation at the opening of spring as summed up by George E. Tucker, field director of the United States farm labor bureau, in an interview here today.

"The spring boom will miss the farmer, while industry is enjoying a general boom, he will be yelling madly for hired help," declared Tucker whose observations were based on a nation-wide survey of farm labor conditions.

There is not a general labor shortage but the farmer is being outbid in the labor market by employers in other lines. They are offering wages he cannot afford to pay.

"The farmer's outlook is brighter, but it is relatively discouraging. He will be forced to pay higher wages for his labor with out prospects of a proportionate increase in returns for his crops."

$40,000 TAKEN FROM BANKER BY BANDITS

(By United Press Leased Wire)

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill., March 23.—Four bandits today held up Samuel D. Barber, assistant cashier of the Southern Illinois National Bank of East St. Louis and escaped with $40,000.

Barber and his chauffeur, Fred Kroger, were crossing the Mississippi river bridge on their return trip after drawing the money from the First National Bank in St. Louis.

As Kroger was about to drive his auto off the bridge, a large touring car pulled up alongside the bank, crowding Kroger's machine into the curb. Two bandits leaped from the car, covered Barber and Kroger with revolvers and ordered them to drive under the east approach to the bridge. Their companions followed in the robbers' automobile.

Stopping under the bridge, the robbers seized the money satchel, forced the two bank employees from the car and with two bandits in each machine, drove away. They sped out of sight toward the business section of East St. Louis.

Sidelights On What Is Occupying Minds And Time of Solons

SACRAMENTO, March 23.—Assemblyman Henry Carter, chairman; Herbert McDowell; W. E. Christian and Edwin Baker, other house members, are in San Francisco today where they will continue the authorized investigation of alleged abuses of the state civil service. The hearings there will last for two days.

The senate conservation committee last night reported out favorably a bill enacting a new general law to govern reforestation and providing exemption of such areas from taxation.

Electrical Contractor Ends Life With Gun In Santa Ana Canyon

MYSTERY SHROUDS CAUSE OF RASH ACT

Takes Own Life During Business Trip to Make Estimate On Work

Leaving a death note to his wife, which mentioned a burden under which he labored, but which gave no inkling of what that burden was, J. G. Robertson, of this city, one of the most widely known electrical contractors in the county, shot and killed himself in the Santa Ana canyon at about 10:30 a. m. today.

According to W. E. Friend, a member of the sales force at the Robertson store, 303 North Main street, Robertson went to the canyon this morning to submit an estimate on electrical work to be done on the Dominguez ranch.

Friend, himself, informed Robertson of the estimate and the latter volunteered to make the investigation and prepare an estimate of the cost.

Friend said that he did not notice anything unusual in the demeanor of Robertson when the latter left the store.

Gives Out Note. Sheriff Sam Jernigan, who, with Herman J. Zabel, head of the county bureau of identification, were summoned to the scene, returned here shortly after 1 p. m. and made public the note that Robertson had addressed to Mrs. Robertson as follows:

"My Dear Maggie:

"I have stood the strain as long as I can. I cannot stand it any longer.

"Only and Fred, be good to mother. I have tried to, but have failed in many ways.

"So make the best of things.

"Love to all. I must end it and get out from under the burden which hangs over me.

"Telegraph Roy at El Paso, Tex. He is there now.

"Love to all.

"FATHER."

Up to 1:30 p. m. Mrs. Robertson had not been informed of her husband's death, it was stated. It was feared that when she learned of it, she would collapse.

Last Seen at 10 A. M.

Robertson was last seen alive at the end of a short unpaved highway near the ditch, making an adjustment on his automobile, about 10 a. m. At that time C. B. French and D. P. Lytle, workers employed by the Santa Ana Valley Irrigation company, observed him, standing beside his car.

The suicide occurred at a point about a quarter of a mile this side of the intake culvert on the Santa Ana canyon highway, about 11 miles from Oltch.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Burbank, who live near the scene of the suicide, found Robertson's body. It was fifty feet from the place where Robertson's car was parked.

Robertson, coatless and hatless, was sitting on a curb at the edge of the ditch. From his hand had slipped the .38 caliber revolver with which he had inflicted one wound behind his right temple.

Blood, streaming from the wound, had settled in large pools on the concrete.

Find Death Note.

In the automobile, carefully parked off from the highway, were found Robertson's coat and other belongings. A notebook in an inside pocket contained the tragic farewell note to his wife. About $15 in money was found in the coat.

The note was carefully written, with an indelible pencil, and the script showed no evidence of agitation. Comparison of the handwriting to that in the notebook showed it to be the same.

According to employees at the store, Robertson had had no business reversals. With a force of forty men, business was regarded as being the best in the history of the organization.

Robertson was not in the habit of carrying a gun of any kind, they said.

Sheriff Jernigan and Deputy Zabel responded to a call about 11 a. m. from Burbank. They discovered the body, just as Burbank yesterday approved the Harris bill creating a state irrigation board to govern organization and operation of water conservation districts.

Assemblywoman Saylor's bill exempting woman licentiate pharmacists from the classes of employees limited to eight hours of work was tabled last night by the assembly labor and capital committee.

President C. C. Young of the senate slipped out shortly before noon yesterday, with the three-fourths jury agreement just getting under way, to telephone Mrs. Young that he would be late for lunch. While he was gone the senators moved to adjourn to attend a special luncheon as guests of North Sacramento, and when President Young returned his flock had departed. The presiding officer had to commandeer a special machine to catch up with the parade.

"I'm for this three fourths jury bill," Senator Allen, Los Angeles, declared vehemently during the last senate debate on the measure. "Down in Los Angeles, the people have been afflicted with a crime wave ever since I came there," the senator asserted. Then he wondered why every one laughed.

had first seen it, and ordered it removed to Smith and Tuthill's funeral parlors here.

An inquest will be held at Smith and Tuthill's at 10 a. m. tomorrow. Coroner C. D. Brown announced late today.

Built Up Big Business

James G. Robertson was born near Marshfield, Mo. January 21, 1873, the son of Daniel W. Robertson, a lumber merchant and one of the real pioneers of that country.

When Robertson reached his majority he went into the telephone business. He erected a private system, which had four central offices and about 1000 telephones. He also organized and installed the electric lighting plant for Marshfield, equipped with a fifty kilowatt generator. He conducted both the telephone and electric lighting plant for six years. He then sold to a company and came to California. He came direct to Santa Ana in 1911.

In that year he started an electric contracting business here and was soon active in wiring houses, installing motors and doing electrical repair work. He built up a big business and a big organization. It was declared that his working staff is the largest of any like concern in Southern California, outside of Los Angeles.

He was married to Miss Margaret Nelson at Marshfield, October 21, 1896. He is survived by his wife and two sons, Orlyn and Fred. The latter is identified with the business. The former is attending Pomona college.

BIRDS DISCOURAGED

NORTH LOUP, Neb., March 23.—The recent snow storm and the heavy gales following have had quite a discouraging effect on the numerous flocks of ducks which have been flying north within the past ten days. Other spring birds, including red-headed woodpeckers, meadow larks and robins, have been seen, but the weather of the last few days has apparently sent them into hiding.

BREAKS RECORD

OSKALOOSA, Iowa, March 23.—Since last April a Duroc-Jersey belonging to M. L. Smithart, Sigourney, has farrowed fifty pigs. In April last she farrowed thirteen pigs. In September sixteen, and in February she broke the record with twenty-one.

POOR SYRUP PAY

There's no money in maple syrup making in Iowa. It took F. H. Marlett, near here, a week to collect 55 gallons of sap, from which twelve quarts of syrup were made, and he netted 10 cents a day for himself and his wife.

TOURIST SEASON OPENS

WYMORE, Neb., March 23.—The auto tourist season here has opened up early. For the past three days cars have been parked in Furnas Park on Main street.—Wymore's free auto tourist headquarters, and tents have been used. The tourists were passing through and stopped here to wait the passing of a bad spell of weather, but more rain does not look promising for their get-away.

SCHOOLS TO ECONOMIZE

MANKATO, Minn., March 23.—Proposals now under consideration by the Mankato board of education looking to more economical operation of the schools, include installation of a plant in the Lincoln school for the generation of its own electricity, to cut down two years of Latin, to drop French and sale of products of the domestic science department to at least meet the expenses of material used in cooking.

KILLED BY TRAIN

INDEPENDENCE, Iowa, March 23.—John Johnston, 58 years old, was instantly killed in the Rock Island yards here when he was struck by a passenger train. He was employed at the coal chute and was going to lunch. He saw the train approaching and stepped off the track, but failed to get far enough away and the pilot beam of the locomotive struck him. He was hurled thirty feet and his head struck the journal box of a car on another track.

UNIQUE SCHEME

BARABOO, Wis., March 23.—Modern and warlike methods of protection have been adopted by the Farmers and Merchants bank here. A poison gas bomb has been attached to the vault door in such a manner that it will be exploded if the combination is tampered with or any attempt is made to cut through the doors with electricity or flame.

RECALLS OTHER STORMS

ELLSWORTH, Neb., March 23.—Following a continuous fall of snow late into the night, the local thermometers registered 7 degrees above zero. This coldest March day for several years also commemorates the tenth anniversary of the worst blizzard up to that time that had been experienced for a great many years. The storm raged for three days, causing a great loss of stock and great suffering to humanity. At this same time Burlington train No. 41 was lost for nearly a full day and was located about three miles east of here with supplies and coal just about exhausted.

ADVERTISES FOR HAND

SHENANDOAH, Iowa, March 23.—Removing the steel contrivance that answers for his hand lost in a corn shredder, Ross Emerson of Blachard, a visitor in Shenandoah, laid it on the back seat of an automobile so that it would not interfere with the clothing of others in the car and lost it. Mr. Emerson is advertising in the newspapers for the return of his hand book, which he needs very badly and which is of no use to anyone else.

AUTHOR HAS BIG VISION

PASADENA, March 23.—While Albert Payson Terhune, the writer, who is at the Hotel Vista del Arroyo here, is not of the cult of "realists" in the sense that term is now used in the literary world, he is a realist nevertheless.

He believes in knowing his subject, the locale of his yarn and, if possible, the experiences of his characters in a general way, before he starts to write.

Some years ago when he was special feature writer of the New York World he conceived the idea of writing stories about boxing that would enable the average public to understand that sport. (Mr. Terhune was much interested in it in his younger days and an adept boxer.) He arranged to box in a friendly way with some famous pugilists of the day, just to write about it intelligently. These "trugs" well-nigh killed him. He learned afterward that his managing editor had offered a prize to the pugilist who first succeeded in knocking him out.

"The managing editor thought it would be more realistic if I were knocked out, so I could describe the sensation," said Mr. Terhune. The author lost several teeth in that literary investigation.

RARE DISEASE FOUND

MONTOUR, Iowa, March 23.—Howard Montgomery, 25 years old, succumbed to a disease so rare that only 188 cases are recorded and no recoveries. It is myasthenia gravis, scientifically, and resembles creeping paralysis, but begins in the skull, although the patient retains his full faculties till he dies of weakness.

OSKALOOSA, Iowa, March 23.—For nine days Nip, 5-year-old beagle bound mascot of the Minneapolis & St. Louis roundhouse employer, was in an abandoned well where he had fallen.

He was rescued by George Wheeler, who paced near the well and heard a distressed whine. Bill Cunningham was lowered into the well and brought the pet out.

ICE SINKS BOAT

CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., March 23.—In the breakup of the ice in the Missouri river here the government boat Ada Bell was caught in the ice floe and sunk. Only the machinery can be saved, rivermen declared after an examination.

SHORTAGE CHARGED

WINNIPEG, Man., March 23.—F. W. Smith, secretary of the Manitoba Rolling Mills, Selkirk, Man., has been arrested, charged with theft and forgery amounting to $100,000. He forged the name of the president of the company, it is charged, and stole $49,000.

HALVORSON WINS

MORA, Minn., March 23.—At the village election here, the following candidates were successful: H. M. Halvorson, president; Lewis Nelson, councilman; Walter Edgar, councilman; Hans Peterson, recorder; and E. E. Randall, assessor.

AUTOS USE TRAIN TRACKS

STEVENS POINT, Wis., March 23.—When motorists found the road between Stevens Point and Wisconsin Rapids blocked by drifts for a mile near Plover, the cars were driven upon the tracks of the Green Bay & Western railroad, and a road for auto traffic opened there. The automobile drivers watched train schedules closely to avoid meeting a speeding passenger train.

MAYOR DIES

CROOKSTON, Minn., March 23.—Charles P. Booth, mayor of this city, died at his home here from pneumonia from which he had been suffering for two weeks. Mr. Booth made a strong fight against the disease and on several occasions gave evidence of recovering. He lapsed into unconsciousness, and remained in that condition until death came.

WOMAN BURNED

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., March 23.—While attempting to light a coat of stove at her home recently, Miss Emma Jordan was severely burned about the face, neck and hands. She had left too much oil out in the pan. When she lit the burner it flared up into her face. While her face and neck were badly burned, she managed to put out the flames before they spread over her entire body, but in doing so, she suffered severe burns on her hands and arms and part of her clothes and hair were burned off.

WATER IMPROVEMENT

DUBUQUE, Iowa, March 23.—The voters ordered a $325,000 waterworks improvement by a very large majority.

FAMOUS DOG

NEWTON, Iowa, March 23.—E. L. Howard, Jasper county Recorder publisher, who has owned Roland Von Namlock, a half brother of the famous dog Strongheart, has sold the animal to a Decatur man.

MAYOR CANNOT QUIT

MANCHESTER, Iowa, March 23.—The mayor and city officers of Manchester are so popular the people will not permit them to quit their jobs. Mayor Fred B. Blair has started a nomination paper for a competing attorney, but the voters would not stand for it. There will be no other nomination.

SPRING GAS DOWN

KANSAS CITY, March 23.—A reduction in the price of gasoline to 16 1-2 cents a gallon inaugurated spring here.

HIKING GIRL SEEN

SAN FRANCISCO, March 23.—The first sign of spring walked down Market street yesterday—a girl dressed in hiking costume, trousers and all.

KEEP ON HEAVIES

CHICAGO, March 23.—Spring is here but don't take off the heavies yet, Henry J. Cox, weather bureau official warned. Mr. Cox said that while spring arrived ladylike and demure, she is fickle and storms may be expected.

TRUE CROSS PARTS FOUND IN AUSTRIA

NEW YORK, March 23.—Fragments of wood, encased in rock crystal and framed in silver, together with a Latin document declaring them to be pieces of the true cross, have been discovered by the Anderson galleries.

The relics were found in the hollow base of a large silver cross which recently arrived from Austria. The document, written in Latin and signed, Sigismundus, cardinal of Kolmitz, archbishop of Vienna and prince of the holy Roman empire, is dated 1750.

The cardinal proclaims the authenticity of the fragments, which probably will be given to a church in this city.

BRITAIN WILL PAY INTEREST IN YEAR

WASHINGTON, March 23.—The British government has notified the American debt funding commission, it was announced at the treasury today that it will pay the full amount of interest provided for in the debt settlement plan the first year.

The British will not exercise the option given them to defer half the interest charge and add that to the principal of the debt. The option gives the British this privilege for any of the first five years of the 62 years' liquidation period.

It was incorporated into the settlement to give the British preparation against a wildly fluctuating or adverse exchange during the early years of the liquidation while European financial and economic conditions are in an uncertain state.

MOTION PICTURES TO BE BROADCAST WITH RADIO IS PREDICTED

WASHINGTON, March 23.—Experts in the radio field, and government officials concerned in its extension met here today at the call of Secretary Hoover to consider various problems that have arisen, particularly with a view to eliminating interferences in broadcasting to the public. After preliminary presentation of views by the government representatives, officials of radio associations, manufacturers and broadcasting station operators, the conferees went into executive committee sessions for a new scheme of allocating bands of wave lengths.

Failure of the last congress to enact regulatory legislation, Secretary Hoover said at the outset of the conference, has made necessary voluntary co-operation and administrative assistance to establish control. The objective, he said, is to guard against taking steps which would hinder the development of an infant science, and extend the usefulness of a service which, he said, already has enlisted 588 broadcasting stations and perhaps as many as 2,500,000 private individual receiving stations.

The government might be willing to relinquish part of its present monopoly of the wave length bands between 600 and 1600 meters, Mr. Hoover indicated. C. F. Jenkins, in charge of government experimental work in the transmission of photographs by radio, declared that within a short time research workers hoped to perfect even transmission of motion pictures and asked special consideration for the operation of such devices.

Radio inspectors of the bureau of navigation presented at the committee sessions a tentative schedule of wave length band allocations, which along with a somewhat similar proposal from the radio chamber of commerce, constituted the chief topic of technical discussion. The government plan proposes to assign to amateur use wave lengths between 150 and 275 meters; to ship and government stations for telephony and telegraph, 300 meters; to class A broadcasting, 320 and 380 meters; class B broadcasting, 395 and 430 meters; aircraft bands would be fixed at 505 and 530 meters, with higher wave lengths for a variety of specialized military, educational, commercial and naval uses.

DRIVER LOSES IN SPOTLIGHT
CASE FIGHT

Found guilty of operating an automobile with a movable spotlight, after a jury had heard evidence in Justice J. B. Cox's court, S. L. Newman was given the choice of paying a $50 fine or serving 50 days in the county jail. He was expected to pay the fine.

Newman, arrested by Motorcycle Officers Frank Stewart and Vernon Myers, had entered a plea of not guilty and demanded a jury trial. Today he appeared by his own attorney. He was assisted by Hockaday, the man who sold him the spotlight.

Meyers and Stewart testified that they found the spotlight movable, and that it was glowing. Newman attempted to show that it had been correct, but Deputy District Attorney C. N. Mose-ley, appearing for the people, contradicted that testimony.

Considerable amusement was occasioned when Newman attempted to contradict Meyers' testimony, but was squelched by Meyers.

Members of the jury were:
Henry Diers, Thomas Mann, G.
E. Norton, J. P. Kinslow, C. A.
Whitfield, Guy Coughlin, H. W.
McCague, L. L. Alderman, T. H.
Bond and N. I. Rice and S. A.
Sheeley.

SLEEVELESS FROCKS
NOW VERY POPULAR

A wave of sleeveless frocks is running high, not only for evening, but for afternoon, when many new models are seen having just a short sleeve often of kimono type.
On the other hand, there is fondness for the long full bishop sleeve of a sheer material sometimes only held by a ribbon binding tied at the wrist. Muslin peasant sleeves embroidered in gay colored wool with matching vest are used in smart dresses with a sports tandency pronounced. Low shoulders are noted also with sleeves fitting the armhole, and long.

In sleeves as in skirts, one may elect what she likes and keep within the bounds of up-to-date fashion.

HEARING IN ROW OVER BIG ESTATE DEFERRED

Hearing on the will contest of the late Amelia Frohling's estate, scheduled to take place before Superior Judge R. Y. Williams today, was continued one week.

In her will, Mrs. Frohling had neglected to mention one son, for whom, she said, she had provided during her lifetime. The son had denied this, and charging fraud, and undue influence, had brought three actions in contest.

NEWS BRIEFS

Co-operative marketing as a possible connecting link between the poultry departments of the farm bureaus of the Seven Southern Counties and the Poultry Producers' association will come up for discussion at the regional directors' meeting tomorrow afternoon. It was learned at the Orange county farm bureau office today.

Orange County Y. M. C. A. leaders will gather tomorrow night at the First Baptist church at Fullerton for a dinner meeting. It was announced today by T. P. McKee, community secretary of the S. A.
Y. Among those expected to attend from Santa Ana are Jim Anderson, Whid Adamson, C. C.
Beatty, Walter Thorison, Kenneth Morrison, Glenn Tidball, Carson
Smith, Martin Warren, L. R. Mc-Mullen, Gene Griset, Lawrence
Harmon, Steel Metzgar and James Hughes.

Santa Ana's 1923 building program today had reached $945,041, according to 406 permits issued at the office of W. S. Decker, building inspector. Nine permits were issued today for $15,026 (and 111 permits had been issued this month to date for $259,874 in buildings, the records showed.

J. C. Metzgar, secretary of the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce, today was planning to attend the meeting of the California Valencia Orange Show association at the Elks' club, Anaheim, Monday at 7
p. m., in accordance with the invitation of Herman Stern, chairman of the executive committee, extended by Malcolm Fraser, manager of the association.

Harry Lynch, night clerk at St.
Ann's Inn, has resigned in order to return to Estes Park, Colo.

The charter roll of the Santa Ana Y. M. C. A. closed with a membership of 156 men, who will hold their first official charter dinner and meeting the night of April 3, at the Spurgeon Memorial banquet. It was announced today by Alex Brownridge, chairman of the membership committee. F. C.
Blauer, secretary, has been preparing the charter membership cards which will be presented to each of the 156 men, it was understood. State "Y" officials are expected to attend the charter dinner.

Everett A. White, president of the Greater Santa Ana Club, and Howard O. Williams, president of the Orange Realty board, will leave by train tonight for San Jose, where they will attend the first quarterly meeting of the board of directors of the California Real Estate association, opening tomorrow. Sunday the realtors will participate in the Blossom festival program at Saratoga, near San Jose.

William E. Otis, president of the Orange County Trust and Savings bank, who is ill with influenza, was reported today as improving.

The condition of Dr. J. M. Sur-lew, who has been ill, continues to improve, according to reports reaching here today from Elsinore, where the physician has been since last Sunday. He is deriving great benefit from his stay there, it was said.

J. F. Kaufman, garage proprietor here, who had been ill since Monday with influenza, was able to resume his duties today.

Steele Finley, paving contractor, who operates asphalt paving plants here and at Fullerton, was enroute today to Sacramento and cities in the northern part of the state, where he will investigate various types of dust-collecting appliances used at such plants. He has in view the installation of such apparatus at his plants, it was said. Persons who reside near his Fullerton establishment are understood to have protested against the dust emanating from it.

More than fifty members of Santa Ana Lodge No. 20, Fraternal Brotherhood, meeting here last night, with J. W. Johnson, super-representative, in charge, elected
P. A. Tricky president and Mrs. J.
D. Sanborn secretary. They were installed by Johnson. The lodge voted to invite Long Beach to be its guests in the near future. The juvenile lodge will be re-organized next Thursday at 6
p. m.

Nebraskans of Santa Ana and other Orange county cities, as well as of Southern California generally, were preparing today to attend a picnic reunion of folk from that state to be held tomorrow at Sycamore Grove park, Los Angeles.

BLOUSES AND SKIRTS
STYLE SCHEME VARIED

Woolens in knitted weaves, fiber silks that are similar, and tweeds and homespun tie with one another in the blouses and skirts style program. Soft wool bordered skirts are highly regarded, in combinations of beige and brown, gray and taupe, white with yellow, etc. Plaid worsteds in green and blue combination loom up as ultra smart with silk sweaters of either color. Knife-pleated skirts of kasha or poplin are timely sports essentials, and like the pleated crepe de chine skirts may be set off by a variety of separate blouses or sweaters.

STYLE DICTATES ARE NOW MORE ELASTIC

Paris proposes modes, but the American disposes of them as she sees fit. A woman elects to wear what pleases her fancy or what she thinks is smart style according to the present elastic dictum of style-makers. Modifications of almost threadbare types of dresses and suits reappear for this spring and the coming summer. Many are wonderfully attractive and have a new appeal because they are made of novel and extremely fanciful patterned materials.

PRINT FABRICS
VOGUE HARD TO ESCAPE

No intense has the vogue of printed colorful fabrics become that no woman will be able to escape it, even though she takes refuge from them now and then in most inconspicuous monotonies.
Not one but many different patterns and creases are likely to find themselves in the average wardrobe, for prints proclaim their right to rule at any hour of the day, formally and otherwise.

It matters not what kind of material is used, whether silk, cotton, wool or even linen, sheer and transparent, or thick enough for a coat.

This season's noticeable innovations or additions to the staple lines of silks in crepe weaves, sports silks of artificial fiber, and cotton fabrics are materials combining silk and wool, or spun and artificial silk together.

The majority of these have some form of crepe weave, that being the dominant type nowadays, while exclusive novelties highly featured for dresses, combining purposes, and sports garments, reveal fancy effects in matelasse, blistered or "puckered" surfaces.

The idea was launched last autumn, and has gained momentum with smart dressers.

Since prints are applied to the many kinds of materials skin to the crepe family, and constitute a wide range of fancy novelties, it is natural that they should be made up in simple effects for the most part. As for the endurance of the print vogue itself, who can answer?

There are two extremes in the print category, the very bold, blatant and bizarre effects, decorated with beasts, birds, heathen gods, Chinese figures, and kaleidoscopic conventions, and very small neat prints with scattered motifs or tracery designs covering the ground.

As to the former division, many have such artistic worth both for design and coloring that they are not only tolerated, but eagerly sought. Some Paisley effects continue to be used, either for entire dresses or for combining with plain wool or silk materials. Silk manufacturers have produced a larger stock of foulards for this season, for which the demand has already been good.

From Rodier and other fabric designers in Paris have come a number of the most fascinating and unusual cotton novelties ever known. The ratine and crepe effects dominate, varied with colorful embroidered motifs, borders, drawn work, and beads.—From April Fashionable Dress Magazine.

The trend of the sport idea, due in part to materials which foster it, and in part to the very general liking for comfortable, simple yet smart attire for practical utility's sake, has influenced modes for town and country, street and indoor wear.

Two and three-piece suits are numerous showing a short flaring jacket of one material, a novelty sport silk, suitable for city use, with a pleated skirt of crepe de chine in a contrasting color. A ribbon or bias piece of the skirting fabric may bind the jacket, or braid may be similarly used.

For spring days of the Riviera, French dressmakers send forth fascinating suits of this character, some with pure white jacquard crepe jackets. Brocaded cotton novelties have been used for like garments, and also for simple straight dresses. Cross stitch embroidery and other gay forms of hand ornamentation have been featured on very individual sports jackets in the French capital.

Probably no smarter garments with a touch of originality are seen than gay colored jumpers of duvetyne, sleeveless or otherwise, bound with braid, and worn with skirt of pleated white moiree.

Russian refugees ornament sports jackets and matching hats, with galons and embroidery after designs on Russian documents.
Dull metal sometimes covers the crowns of the small velvet hats.
These "sets" are sold almost on sight, being exclusively novel.

Jumpers of silk jersey embroidered in Algerian motifs with colored chenille and metal have been worn for informal teas at French resorts.—From April Fashionable Dress Magazine.

MOVIE ACTOR FACES
NEW SERIOUS CHARGES

Arraigned on serious charges, in addition to charges of contributing to the delinquency of an 18 year old Santa Ana girl, Jim Alamo, motion picture actor, was held in the county jail in default of $4,000 total bond.

Alamo, whose true name is James Davis, was arrested Wednesday in Los Angeles by Deputy Sheriff Herman Zabel, on a warrant secured by the girl's father.
Since he was arraigned on the contributing charges, and held under $2,000 bond, he was re-arrested on the more serious charges, and held under an additional $2,000.
He will appear for preliminary hearing May 3 at 11 a. m.

EDGAR NAMED EXECUTOR
George Edgar was appointed executor of the $60,000 estate of the late Amelia Frohling. He was placed under $12,000 bond by Superior Judge R. Y. Williams, who made the appointment.

also furnished by Mr. Strock.

NEW APPARATUS IS ADDED TO KFAW PLANT

The Register's radiophone, KFAW, broadcast a lively program last night. It was made up of eight numbers played by the Belvedere Terrace orchestra, two readings by Mrs. J. W. Estes Jr. and a Bedtime Story for the youngsters given by Eleanor Young Elliott.

Some late improvements in radio apparatus that have been added to KFAW's equipment were tried out last night for the first time with excellent results.

Last night's entertainment comprised the following numbers:
1. Edison Recreation "Underneath the Mellow Moon," fox trot, Kaplan's orchestra.
2. Fox trot, "Night," by Simons, Belvedere Terrace orchestra.
3. Oriental romance, "Suez," by Grofe and De Rose, Belvedere Terrace orchestra.
4. Fox trot, "Are You Playing Fair?" Belvedere Terrace orchestra.
5. Dialect reading, "My Possum Hunt," Mrs. J. W. Estes, Jr.
6. Piano solo, "Stephanie," by Czibulka, Miss Naomi McGilvray.
7. Saxophone solo, "Dumbell," by Confrey, Howard White.
8. Reading, "Ma and the Auto,"
Mrs. J. W. Estes Jr.
9. Fox trot, "Peggy Dear," Belvedere Terrace orchestra.
10. Bedtime Story, "Why Jimmy Skunk Never Hurries," Mrs. Elliott.
11. Fox trot, "Gallagher and Shean," Belvedere Terrace orchestra.

Next Monday will be "Fullerton Night" and talent from that city will supply the program for KFAW.
KFAW is being heard and enjoyed each Monday and Thursday night by fans at Banning, Calif., according to a card received from the Desert Edge Studio at that place. The Banning listeners in report that KFAW's audibility and modulation are excellent and that all Register programs are heard very clearly.

SUMMER VOGUE OF KNITTED WOOL SEEN

NEW YORK, March 21.—Surest signs of summer vogue, knitted wool fabrics ruled the morning sands at all the winter resorts this year. Slip dresses made in lace openwork effects as well as knitted in plain stitches, and sweaters and slipons in styles we have been accustomed to, save that they bore more embroidery than was ever seen before, were quite the most conspicuous feature of the shorescape from the start of the season.
Sweaters went with knitted skirts or accompanied wool fabric. As for skirts the white completely outvoted every other color. "This should suffice for a hint about coming morning or sports wear."

The shops are full of domestic knitted garments, and more are coming on every day from France and England, Vienna and Berlin.
They do the knitted wool act with great aplomb, judging from the evidence of New York shops. This refers not simply to prices charged. Clever conceals with the crochet hook or knitting needle made the garments worth the jump over the price of conventional knitted goods, if you have it. For example, a knitted cape combining narrow taffeta ribbon with wool in an unusual crochet stitch, or a fleece, lace dress and cape with bandings of plain stitches. Knitted wool suits are asked for, but the one piece frock leads the demand.

PLAN CEREMONIAL AT BOYS' WORK MEETING

Jim Anderson's "Y" club, it was announced today, will furnish a ceremonial feature at the third session of the Santa Ana Y. M. C.

leaders at the First Presbyterian church Monday at 7 p. m.
T. P. McKee, community secretary, said that the "Y" club would recite the ritual of the "Pioneer ganization.

'Dorothy Devine' Confirmation Dresses

Dorothy Devine dresses are made for girls of about 14 or 16 years. Of course, we have confirmation dresses for girls of all ages, but we mention these particularly because of their unusual attractiveness.

One is of organdie with fine tucks and ruffles, crush girdle, at $21.75.

Another of organdie with ruffled effect of laces, white rosettes form the girdle. A special value at $17.50.

Call at our Second Floor apparel section.

Confirmation Illusions, Nets

Fine nets for confirmation—36 inches wide—per yard, $1.00

Illusions, 72 inches wide—priced at $1.75, $2.25 and $3.00

Bridal Veiling, 72 inches wide—per yard, $2.50

Wreaths at $1.50, $2.75 and $3.50.

Finger Fashion

Gloves, if you've noticed, are getting terribly "upish." They've been insisting on showing their cuffs for a long time and now they talk of displaying their linings. Well, we're mighty fond of them anyway. Still, being of Kayser and Van Raalte silk and having dainty little ruffles, tucks, puffs and other eccentricities, does seem a trifle coquettish.

NEW COSTUME SUITS AND COATS for SPRING

"Personalized Style"—Printz models offer a great variety of styles from which to choose—styles "personalized" for all the varying types of normal figures.

The smart suit must have its flare this Spring—thus a Twill model meets the vogue. Silk stitching trims the graceful coat which modishly fastens its sash at the side. Messaline lined. $65.00.

A subtle charm is tucked away in the sleeves, back and collar of a de-lightfully wearable Cloak which comes in all the spring shades of sponge or Twill. Full silk lined. $57.50.

Let the dignity of simplicity be violated, the designer used no other trimming than trim tucks—and with what adorable result in a Twill suit in grey-stone color. Skinner silk lined. $65.00.

There seems a note of individuality in a charming new Sports Coat of natural Camel's Hair, with its bewitching little rows of tucks and swagger leather belt. Messaline lined. $40.00.

A popular blouse Coat for Spring, of Eponge and with a tie belt. The collar and very unique cuffs are embroidered in criss-cross squares of narrow silk lines. $50.00.

A three-quarters unlined Coat of natural Camel's Hair. An inverted pleat, set-in sleeves, swagger pockets, all-around belt encircling the waist, complete a utility garment. $29.50.

Little Spring Dresses

$1.25 and $1.75

Of course, mother wants her little girl to look her best all the time, even when she goes to her playmate's yard for a romp. These charming little Gingham dresses help her to do this because they are styled just right, in red and white checks, brown and white, with applied organdie diamonds on pockets, and embroidered. $1.25.

And Gingham and lineweave dresses in brown, tan, small checks with solid color chambray trimming, applique organdie designs, all embroidered. At $1.75.

RELIGIOUS ORDER IS GIVEN SALES PERMIT

Permission was given the "Female Religious Order" to sell property at Anaheim for $75,000, as the matter came before Superior Judge R. Y. Williams today.

The order asked permission to sell a lot on Palm avenue, Anaheim, for later subdivision.

EXPECT 400 AT MEETING OF CHURCHMEN

James W. Foley, newspaper verifier, is to address 400 members and guests of the Federated Church Brotherhood of Santa Ana who will gather at the dinner meeting at the First Methodist church here to-night at 6:30 o'clock.

All reservations had been made according to J. E. Mayer, chairman of the brotherhood, who said that other speakers from Pasadena would be on the program with Foley, who is a resident of Pasadena.

Musical features of the evening are planned to include numbers by the First Presbyterian church quartette, songs by Robert Brown, and selections by the Santa Ana Polytechnic high school orchestra.

As a mid-Lenten service the speakers are expected to deliver stirring addresses and an inspiring message from the brotherhood of Pasadena.

CHECK CASE SUSPECT DENIED PROBATION

Denying the defendant's appeal for probation, Superior Judge R. Y. Williams today sentenced K. F. ("Micky") Kelly, asserted scion of a wealthy Ohio family, who had pleaded guilty to bad check charges, to serve from one to four years in San Quentin.

Kelly, who was said to have posed as a marine officer, a rank which he claims to have held formerly, defrauded Huntington Beach persons with large worthless checks, it was charged. He applied for probation.

A NEAT FINISH

When hemming linens that are to be finished with lace, turn up the end on the right side and place lace on top of that. The wrong side will look as neat as the right.

DOUBLE FACED

Double-faced materials are very stylish, a crepe surface on top and a smooth satin below. This makes it possible to use one side for the main body of the gown and the reverse for trimming.

FASHIONABLE COAT

The fashionable coat of the moment is the tubular, straight-line affair presenting an unbroken silhouette from collar to hem, and tied at the side with an unobtrusive bow.

GOLD STOCKINGS

London is getting all excited about some new stockings of gold tissue which make you look exactly as if you'd been paddling about in a tub of gold paint.

VETS IN BURNT CORK SCORE SUCCESS IN MINSTERL SHOW

Santa Ana Post No. 131, American Legion, dispensed fun, frolic, hilarity and humor, all for a serious purpose, in its annual minstrel show at the Yost theater here last night and transformed a big audience, with a skill that was surprising, from a ruminative atmosphere to a giggling, laughing, at times even a shrieking band of satisfied patrons.

From the opening curtain, a scene of the battle field at the front with its spanking and spluttering of machine guns and the flare of bombs while a "Buddy" went West, to the close when Wayne Stewart as the shaggy-kneed Ephraim Jackson George Washington Brown arose from his hiding place and advised his fallen "partner in crime" that "I told you, Harry, we should have done it tomorrow night," the show passed the test of amateur production with flying colors.

The show, which will be repeated tonight, was given by the ex-service men in order to raise funds for the Legion home here.

Fun Runs Riot
The production was not perfect. The appreciative audience was glad that it wasn't. Those imperfections added fifty per cent to the enjoyment of the evening.

For instance, when Tommy Scudder, attired in a bathrobe, entered the sitting room of his residence to see who was intruding, and, gazing at the ceiling, said he didn't see anybody, so it must have been the wind, he created twice as much laughter than had he scrutinized each nook and corner.

Don Hopkins, whose directing genius was responsible for the success of the production, Wayne Stewart, Carl ("Slim") Warren and Jack Cardell made a quartette of end-men riots. Their speaking lines were funny, their actions funnier and their music quite pleasing.

End-Men Create Hilarity
With Franklin ("Brick") Grouard, commander of the local Legion Post, as interlocutor, the first part of the minstrel was given over to outbursts by the end-men.

and a splendid musical program by individual members of the cast.
Paul Tucker pleasingly rendered "Indiana Home." J. E. Roberson delighted with "Tomorrow." Carl Warren's "Sophie," would have done credit to a professional. E. C. Christenson was heavily endorsed for his "California" and Jack Cardell's "Carolina in the Morning," was a knock-out. "When the Leaves Come Tumbling Down," sung by Jack Beatty, was splendid. Wayne Stewart's "Makes Mine Myself," was great and the others, "Just An Old Love Song," by Elmer Heidt; "Wishing for You," by Fred Wilde; "Constantly," by Don Hopkins; "What's the Use of Dreaming," by Lloyd Babbitt, "Pal o' Mine," by Hugh Osborne and "Homesick," by Bob Davis were equally as good and deserving of praise.

The second part, which consisted of plenty of variety, never lagged for a single instant.
A quartette from the Orange American Legion post was endorsed time and again. Bob Davis as Mr. Able, the tailor, proved a scream with his jokes and gestures.

Musical numbers were offered by Wilde and Jones, the Wayne Huffman trio of stringed instrument players and the Elmer Heidt trio. The famous horse, "Spark Plug," made its appearance in the first and second parts, causing merriment on each visit.

The comedy sketch, "Robbing a House," brought such laugh-provokers as Stewart, Joe Plank, Sid Allender and Tom Scudder into the limelight. Plank made a very determined detective. Stewart was the colored "pig rancher" who joined forces with the detective and later with the escaped crook, Harry Tracey (Allender) who planned to rob the home of Judge Doolittle (Scudder) and to kill the jurists who sent him to the penitentiary.

The special orchestra, under the direction of "Curly" Hurd had much to do with the success of the show.

JR. H. S. GIRLS GLEE CLUB TO ENTERTAIN STAGE SET FOR WOMEN'S BALL CLUB MEET

Presenting a program as one of the numbers of the junior high school's winter entertainment course, the Girls' Glee club of that school will present a number of pleasing entertainment at the school Monday at 7:45 p. m., it was announced today.

The junior high school orchestra will open the program. The glee club will sing "Goblet of Youth," by Lecocq, and "Moonlit Meadows," by Czibulka. Georgia Belle Walton will play two violin solos, "Masurka," by Mlynarski, and "A Song Without Words." Jewel Fletcher will sing "The Swallows" and "Little One a Cryin'."

These students will present a Chinese dance: Helen Gould, Loretta Spangler, Jean Nicholson, Charlotte Prichard, Virginia Bailey, Madelyn Gardner, Muriel Stansfield, Eleanor Ralston.

Helen Scheneberg will play a piano solo. The glee club will sing "The Lost Chord," by Sullivan, and "Cavalry Song," by Spindler.

CIRCLAR FLOUNCES
An unusual crepe frock has a wide circular flounce embroidered in color and wide ruffles at the edge of the sleeves, similarly treated. The bateau neckline is unrelieved by any trimming.

SWEATERS AND SASHES
Very wide, fringed sashes are worn with some of the newest sheer wool sweaters. A tan sweater is apt to have a brown girdle, a gray one navy, and so on.

UTILITY NOTE STRONG IN OUTER GARMENTS
Top coats, sports coats, and capes express the varied types of modish outer garments for practical utility and sports, while to these may be added combinations of a ripple cape in the back attached to the jacket of a two-piece suit. Long dress capes will be made of crepe materials, some being pleated, and some shirred, but all will contribute to the slender contour.

TAILORED COSTUME TO RUN TO GRAY, CLAIM
Among the spring's smartest colors, gray will rank high for the tailored costume. Its neutral background recommends it highly for many charming combinations with the highly colored silk crepes so popular for three-piece costumes.

CANTON CREPE GOOD FOR CHARMING FROCK
African brown Canton crepe, set off with rosettes of rose color crepe makes a charming and girlish afternoon frock. Its charming simplicity gives assurance that it will be a favorite for the coming season. Panels at the sides with scalloped bottom, set on to an accordion pleated skirt finished in fan shape at the front, may be used. A softly drooping hat of three-ply tulle and tassel straw is a fitting accompaniment to such a frock.

TO HOLD COURT IN JUDGE'S SICKROOM

With court to be held in the sick room of Superior Judge Z. B. West at 3 p. m. today, the petition of E. J. Ahlers, for a new trial on serious charges, of which he was convicted by a jury, will probably be granted, it was learned.

Ahlers was convicted after a trial before a jury in Judge West's court. West refused Ahlers' plea for probation, and the defendant demanded a new trial, asserting that the court erred in admitting certain evidence.

Since the illness of Judge West, the matter has been pending. While District Attorney A. P. Nelson was of the opinion that the matter of a new trial could be decided by Superior Judge R. L. Williams, the matter was said to have weighed heavily on the ill judge's mind, and to relieve him of the problem, it was decided to hold court at his home.

The Patchwork Quilt

By Eleanor Young Elliott
HAVE YOU PIECE TO PUT IN IT?

SPRING SOG.
Fair spring has come to us again. The silver moon-lit floods the earth. And starts the little chirping frogs To bid their songs to laughing mirth.

Up at your window log I gaze
And lightly twang my sweet guitar
And dream about your lovely ways
And wonder sadly where you are.

Why did you eub and toss a flower
To your admirer here below??
I've sung you love-songs for an hour
Here where the soft spring breezes blow.

"Tis so robandic thus to stand
And serenade by silvery hood
Whose fairy chub floods the land
But will you eub and greet be sood?

The silver breezes of the night,
The silver tinkler of the fog
I hope will add to your delight—
But Darlig, pray do'd be so long!

"Twas at the notions department
Of one of the dry goods store.
The obliging young clerk had just finished Waiting on one customer to turn to another who had been impatiently awaiting her turn.

"How much is baby-ribbon a yard?"
"Was the question of the shopper.

"Two yards for five cents," was the reply as the rolls of gayly colored ribbon were displayed. After a few minutes' careful deliberation, the shopper made her choice of color and then with pursed lips and thoughtful brow considered her needs.

"Let me see, I believe I will require about a third of a yard," she finally announced, and as the long suffering clerk wrapped and tied the purchase she asked anxiously with fingers searching through the smart pin-seal bag she carried, "How much do I owe you?"

And the clerk smiled—actually smiled sweetly and answered courteously, "Just tuck it in your bag and don't bother. It is really too small to attempt to make out a ticket for."

And the shopper took the advice—and the ribbon—and her departure—without one word of thanks. And the clerk turned to the next customer without a word.

And they say that angels are the people that inhabit heaven!

"I tore the sticky weeds to shreds With blunt and bleeding hands."
Apropos of clearing the blooming lawn of noxious vegetation. (Never knew weeds could grow so fast!?)

Thus Falstaff who evidently found inspiration to sing while clearing his "blooming lawn." Now instead of quoting "When Homer smote the blooming lyre" we can say "When Falstaff cleared his blooming lawn."

Alas, the inspiration failed to last, and the two lines are all we have to offer of a masterpiece. Unless the addendum is also to be classed among masterpieces! Let's demand the rest of it. Falstaff, we dare you.

With spring arrived and summer on the way, the sea calls more insistently than ever. Don't you like the following verses published "once upon a time" in the "Lyric West?"

"Bits of Sands"
I stretch myself full length, in warm dry sand
While endless, swishing waves foam out to me,
Across the sky a white winged sea gull sails,
Then swerving seaward, dips into the sea.

Warm salt wind, I close my eyes content,
The curving sky bends down to cover me.
I am a bit of drifting yellow sand
While thoughts spread out their wings and skim the sea.

—Frances Wetmore Gross.

SPRING STYLES FOR STREET
Though jaunty suits with short flaring jackets will have their fling this spring, some American women will flaunt in the face of extreme fashion their favored two-piece tailfours of mannish type, while for dressier occasions, the short jacket with its hip belt will adapt itself to many of the novelty spring materials, either in two or three-piece combinations. Some say blue serge is coming again, and that it will appear in smart dresses combined with printed foulard or crepe.

SPORT COSTUMES
With pleated skirts are worn the most vivid and colorful jackets. Sometimes a band of the figured material applied just above the hem of the skirt indicates its close relationship to the jacket, but usually they go their separate ways so far as material and color are concerned.

TAFFETA AND LACE
Black taffeta hats for early spring are effectively trimmed with cocardes of cream or black lace, or equipped with small veils that shade only the eyes.

VARIETIES OF TRIMMING
Satin gowns for spring are trimmed with big bows, circular flounces or capes, or with youthful drapery.

Dr. Vonkleinsmid To Speak Before D. A. R. Members

An announcement carrying keen interest to members of the Santa Ana chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, was made today by Mrs. Leonard G. Swales, chapter regent, who stated that Dr. R. B. Von Kleinsmid, president of the University of California, southern branch, had consented to be present at the chapter meeting April 7 and deliver an address on "International Relations."

Probably no person in the country could speak on that subject more authoritatively than Dr. Von Kleinsmid, today declared Mrs. Swales who expressed herself as being highly gratified that the eminent educator's friendship was of such quality that he would forego his school duties in order to appear before the local organization.

Mrs. Ella Campau will be hostess at her beautiful home, 801 French street.

Mr. and Mrs. Swales were guests yesterday of Dr. Von Kleinsmid at the college assembly and had a thoroughly enjoyable and interesting experience.

Among other announcements of interest to the Daughters was the invitation accorded the local chapter through the regent, to visit the famous "Mayflower" at the Charles Ray Studio where Mr. Ray and his leading lady will greet all D. A. R. members of this section of the state and offer the freedom of the famous facsimile of the revered and historical vessel whose passengers were destined to play so large a part in United States history.

The reproduction at the Ray studio is said to be faithful in every detail and the Daughters are to have the honor of being the first to whom the courtesy of so charming an affair has been extended, for it will be given the value of a social function and tea will be served.

It is hoped that many local members may find it possible to attend. Another important invitation for the afternoon was that extended by F. E. Stephenson to attend the dedication of the Memorial Drive at Orange county park at 2 o'clock when the Boy Scout exercises will be such a beautiful part of the program. Mrs. Swales has given the local event precedence in importance and will be present at the park exercises.

Past Matrons

On Tuesday, March 27, members of the Past Matrons' association of Hermosa chapter, O. E. S., will be entertained at the Theo. A. Winbigger home, 207 East Ninth street where Mrs. Winbigger, Mrs. A. W. Griffith and Mrs. Alice M. Tubbs will present a 1 o'clock luncheon. To add to the interest of the occasion will be featured election of officers while the annual payment of dues is also at hand. Members who find it impossible to be present are requested to notify Mrs. Winbigger not later than noon of the previous day.

Cooked Food Sale

"Sugar and spice and everything nice" were today being skillfully assembled by members of the First M. E. Foreign Missionary society who tomorrow will present one of their famous baked goods sales. Pies, cakes, cookies to say nothing of baked beans, meat loaves, salads of all kinds and other delectable "goodies" will be displayed. The F. C. Blauer grocery, that favored site of church women of all denominations, will be the scene of the sale which will open at 9 a. m. and those contributing articles of food are requested to have them there as early as possible.

AN ATTRACTIVE DRESS

Among the spring fashions is an attractive afternoon dress with fitted bodice, low shoulders and interesting cut-away long sleeves, and a skirt of rounded panels showing ruffles of beige net between. All edges are trimmed with fancy braid, and rosettes of ribbon lend suitable finish. Brown taffeta is the material. Waist has center back opening, skirt opens on left side.

Ebell Tea Room

Many hungry folk have learned the easy descent into the gay orange and black Ebell Tea Room in the basement of the Mutual Building and Loan association, as the members of Ebells' study sections are daily learning.

This week with the Second Household Economics members in charge under the direction of their leader, Mrs. H. J. Selway, assisted by a few non-section members, crowds continue to gather for the delicious luncheons served from 11 a. m. to 1 p. m. One recent day there were over forty accommodated during the two hours. The chicken dinners have proven a great drawing card and insistent demands for them result from all who have ever tasted chicken as Ebells cooks prepare it.

Tomorrow will complete the second section's term and next week culinary matters will be in the equally capable hands of the Fourth Household Economics section directed by Mrs. G. E. Bruns, leader.

Tomorrow will also usher in the weekly food sale and all Ebells members are requested to bear the Saturday sales in mind and contribute generously to the list of dainties.

Star Social Club

Masonic temple parlors will be the scene of the second meeting of the social club recently organized by members of Santa Ana chapter, O. E. S., when they gather Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock as guests of Mrs. Carl Mock and Mrs. A. W. Getchell.

Whist is the chosen diversion of the little club whose members have chosen this means to promote the friendliness which is so distinguishing a part of the city's "baby chapter." Mrs. Mock and Mrs. Getchell are asking a number of Star friends as their guests.

Youths Gather To Help Celebrate Comrade's Birthday

A recent merry party enjoyed by Howard Youel and comrades of the Y. M. C. A. club to which he belongs and his Sunday school class, was that arranged by Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Youel at their home, 530 East Seventeenth street to honor their son's fifteenth birthday.

With the youths were Messrs. Glen Tidball and Leon Lauderbach, the former being the leader of the Y club and the latter, teacher of the Sunday school class, while members of the Youel household aided in dispensing hospitality.

Games and jolly contests of all description made the evening hours a merry and happy time. Ice cream and cake after which marshmallows were toasted over the flickering blaze of candles. All decorations in honor of the event were in pink and white with Easter suggestions predominating.

Howard received many gifts from his pals who included in addition to Mr. Tidball and Mr. Lauderbach, Allan McDermott, Howard Paul, Carroll Ault, Walter Parks, Frank Thorpe, Arthur Norman, Louis Dixon, James Thomas, Jack Warner, Bruce Martz, Robert McKean, Maurice Read, Don Dunbar, Charles Searles, William Beasley, Clark Best, Nyland Hurd and George Preble.

Calumpit Auxiliary

Tuesday, March 27, will be marked by a pleasant event in Calumpit circles when Mrs. Maude Miller of Myrtle and Third streets, Tustin, will entertain members of the auxiliary at tea. Two o'clock is the hour named for the guests to assemble.

Birthday Surprise Expresses Good-Will Of Apartment Dwellers

What proved to be a very pleasant surprise indeed was the little afternoon affair arranged yesterday by a group of young matrons making the Fowler apartments their home.

The day so celebrated was the birthday of Miss Kate Lafferty, in charge of the apartments, and at 2:30 she was summoned to the home of Mrs. Maude Dorey where she found the assembled guests ready to shower her with greetings and good wishes.

The merry afternoon was filled with music and chat and Miss Lafferty, after her first surprise, proved herself a rare entertainer, vying with Mrs. Anthony Hoffman as a star story teller. Tiny Miss Virginia Louise Ryan shared honors with the afternoon guest for she was attending the very first party of her whole life—an exact three weeks.

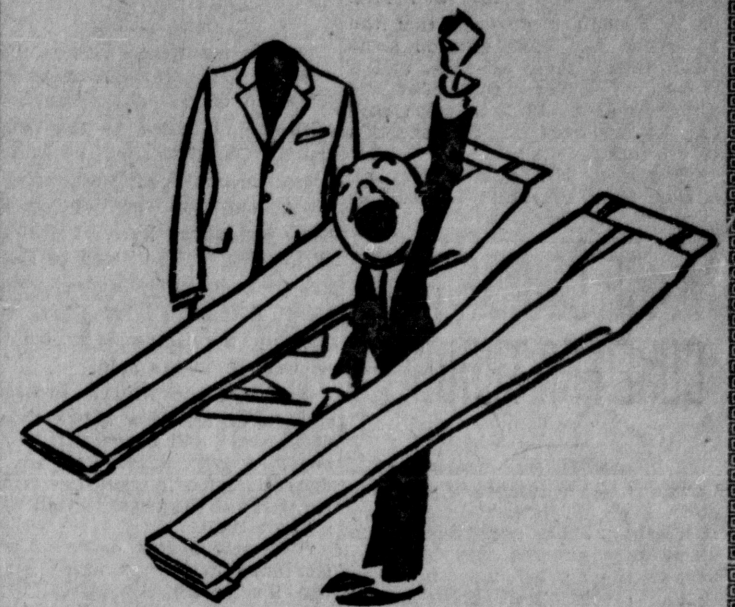

It was at the tea hour when refreshments were enjoyed that Miss Lafferty was further surprised with a cluster of daffodils and a box of fine bon-bons which expressed the friendliness of those to whom she offers an unfailing courtesy.

Those present in addition to the honoree were Mrs. Maude Dorey, Mrs. Amel Stillger, Mrs. Charles Vanderwert, Mrs. Anthony Hoffman, Mrs. A. O. Jeffers, Mrs. James Ryan and tiny Miss Virginia Louise Ryan.

Parliamentarians

Announcement has been made that the Parliamentary section of Ebells club will meet Tuesday, March 27, at the home of Mrs. J. W. McCormac, 112 Church street at 9:30 a. m.

THIEVES LOOT HOME AS COUPLE ABSENT

Returning to their home at 408 West Second street, after an absence of a week, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Prough discovered that the residence had been entered some time during their absence, and a chest of silver, containing 28 pieces, and a $10 gold piece stolen, he reported to the sheriff's office today.

MOVIE COUPLE FIND CURE FOR TROUBLES

LOS ANGELES, March 23.—Contrary to the rumors which have permeated Hollywood for some time, King Vidor, noted movie producer-actor, and his wife, Florence, also of the movies, have no intention of separating, according to Vidor who explained the finer workings of the couple's matrimonial relationship today.

"The rumor that we are going to separate generally starts when we take our 'matrimonial vacations,'" Vidor explained.

"We have followed this plan for some time. When we fuss and quarrel one of us takes a vacation and then when we are together again it is like honeymooning all over."

Vidor said his wife intended taking their small daughter, Suzanne, on a boat trip to Honolulu. They will be gone five weeks.

KLAN CHIEF FORMS BRANCH FOR WOMEN

(By United Press Leased Wire)
ATLANTA, Ga., March 23.—The Kamella, a national organization of women founded on the lines of the Ku Klux Klan will be launched soon, William Joseph Simmons, imperial emperor of the Ku Klux Klan announced here. The organization, which, according to the announcement will function "alongside" of the Ku Klux Klan, is the result of a nation-wide appeal from women, Simmons said.

Native born white. Protestant women of America above the age of 18 years will be admitted to the order, according to Simmons, who declared he will issue the ritualistic work of the organization within a short time.

The new secret order of which Simmons has appointed himself the head with the title of "El Magus" will be devoted to a "new consecration" to the American home, to the American government and to the American creed of Christianity as taught by the Protestant church, Simmons declared.

AGED BRIDEGROOM DIES
MUSCATINE, Iowa, March 23.—Irvin W. Spooner, 85 years old, who married for the third time last January, is dead. His wife, formerly Mrs. Catherine Dow of Marshalltown, 58 years old, survives.

Black taffeta is frequently combined with white batiste or white lace in the spring frocks. Aprons, tunics, guimps and overblouses of white relieve the plainness of the dark silk and add to the smartness.

Once On a Time

By Berton Braley
The men of benignity, greatness and dignity.
Captains of commerce and trade;
Whose mighty ability, strength and virility
Make us a little afraid;
Who work so aggressively, talk so impressively—
Lose just a bit of their thrall
If we can just realize these we idealize
Once were exceedingly small!

They don't seem so awfully lofty and vast.

If we can just vision the days of the past.

When John Rockefeller

Was learning his speller,

And Henry Ford played with his rattle;

When Elbert H. Gary

Was chuckful of merry

And innocent infantile prattle;

When William J. Bryan

Would silently lie on

The elderdown quilt of his crib:

When Gompers were rompers,

And Schwab wore a bib!

Before Mr. Daugherty reached his majority,

Or Taft grew so tall and so wide,

They acted mischievously, suffering grievously

Doubtless, for all that they did.

However, we group our men—

common or supermen—

Each of them once was a kid.

They don't seem so dazlingly great and sublime,

If we can just vision that, "Once on a time—"

When Harding was creeping,

Or Wilson was sleeping,

Wrapped up in an infantile dress;

When Morgan, the banker,

With babyish rancor

Would howl all the day, more or

When Denby and Hoover

Would slyly maneuver

For jam or for cookies ad lib—

When Gompers were rompers,

And Schwab wore a bib!

LIONS CLUB IN ATTENDANCE

CONTEST

The Lions club of this city will enter an attendance contest with other clubs of the nation, it became known today, following the weekly meeting of the club at St.

Ann's Inn here yesterday. The club will be in the "D" class, which is composed of dens of about equal membership. The contest will begin Thursday and will continue to May 28.

Preparations for another of the club's popular ladies' night dinner dances were under way today. The entertainment committee is headed by M. B. Lacy. The event will take place at St. Ann's Inn the evening of April 6.

Piano and vocal selections by

Carl Rolles and an address by George R. Wells on the coming municipal election were two features on the program.

Charles M. Anderson, who is directing the organization here of Community Service, was the chairman of the program committee.

He introduced Hugh Gilmore, one of the executives of the national organization. A former superin-endent of county schools and a banker in the East, Gilmore brought to the club some of his ob-

HURL CHARGES IN FULLERTON SCHOOL ROW

FULLERTON, March 23.—Charges were hurled thick and fast at Louis Plummer, principal of the Fullerton union high school and junior college, and the members of the present Fullerton high school board of trustees at a meeting held last night to further the candidacy of C. W. Finch, at the present time a member of the grammar school board, for a place on the high school board. Finch was unanimously endorsed.

The meeting was attended by delegations from surrounding towns whose spokesmen pledged support to Finch. L. B. Stewart, president of the high school board, attended but made no defense of the administration of school affairs or denial of the charges made by different speakers. Plummer did not attend.

Plummer was called "demagogic" and "autocratic."

T. L. McFadden Speaks

Thomas L. McFadden, of Placentia, lawyer, speaking for a delegation from that district, declared that Finch's candidacy came in the nick of time to prevent a split in the union high school district and the formation of at least one new district.

"There is already a move on foot for the creation of another district," he said. "The patience of the people of Placentia has reached the breaking point. They realize full well the extravagance of the present board and the fact that the institution, of which they are so proud, is rapidly becoming a one-man school. It is time for a change."

Mayor William Coulter seconded

the remarks of the Placentia speaker, adding:

"They seem to forget that they are servants of the public and as such are responsible to the public for their actions."

Raps Secret Sessions

"The enormous expense of conducting the district and star chamber proceedings, in which the public is not admitted, has caused suspicion to reach the breaking point and there is danger of dissolution."

The mayor called attention to the fact that all the meetings of the local city council and the grammar school board are open to the public and that the members appreciated the attendance of local citizens.

W. L. York of La Habra also spoke in favor of the candidacy of Finch and against the continuation of the rule of the present board and principal.

DIVISION OF S. A.

PARISH DIRECTED

As anticipated for more than a year, the Santa Ana district of the Catholic church today has been divided by the Rt. Rev. John

J. Cantwell, bishop of the diocese of Monterey and Los Angeles, making the second subdivision of the parish within the past two years. Organization of a church at Orange was the first of the two subdivisions.

The Rev. Father Verhale has been assigned to the new parish, which will be composed of that portion of the city lying south of

First street. The Rev. Mr. Ver-hale is residing temporarily with the Rev. Father Henry Eummelen, pastor of St. Joseph's Catholic church, and will continue his residence at the parish house until such time as organization of the new parish can be perfected, location secured and arrangements completed for a new place of worship.

With the creation of the new district, many parishioners who have been attend the church on

Lacy street for years, will transfer their church activities to the new parish, it was said, although it is possible that some may continue to attend the former, regardless of the fact that their financial obligations will be to support the new parish.

A STYLISH SPORTS COAT

A sports coat capable of so many utilitarian uses has no more elegant interpretation for the coming season than in terms of natural color camel's hair cloth, at once supple, soft and light in weight.

BORDERED FABRICS

Many of the season's most interesting dresses are fashioned from bordered fabrics.

SQUEAKY SHOES

There is perhaps nothing so annoying as squeaky shoes. Place them in a dish with just enough linseed oil to cover the soles and let them stand all night.

NEW TRIMMING TREND

In certain types of dresses, depending chiefly on the character of the material used, more trimming is noticed than has been for a long time. Pleating is revived with a vengeance, and it gives opportunity for very different and new treatment.

IS CHAMPION HOUSE CLEANER

"Your medicine is certainly the greatest cleaner I ever saw. I never thought such stuff could be in a human being. I am feeling ten years younger since taking the course of May's Wonderful Remedy, and am telling everybody it is the champion house cleaner. My bloating in stomach and pains are all gone and I can eat anything."

It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose

ALLEGED CARRIER OF BLUDGEON SENTENCED

Pleading guilty to charges of carrying a bludgeon, Ben Hassan, arrested at 1 a. m. today by Officer Barnard, at Second street and Broadway, was sentenced to serve six months in the county jail.

The bludgeon, a heavy iron pipe about one foot in length, equipped with a strap, was found inside Hassan's shirt. The defendant protested his innocence of evil intention.

MAN RETRACTS GUILT PLEA IN GIRL CASE

Retracting his plea of guilty to serious charges, Leonard Spurlock today was given the aid of an attorney, appointed by the court.

Spurlock was arraigned before Superior Judge R. Y. Williams today, and entered a plea of guilty. After considering the matter, and on the advice of the court, he withdrew the plea to confer with W. F. Coburn, appointed as his counsel. He was to enter a plea this afternoon.

Spurlock was arrested after an alleged joy ride with a 13-year-old girl several months ago.

SAY VANITY CASES ARE GOOD CARRIERS

PASADENA, March 23.—So-called "vanity cases" are useful to the girls of John Muir High School for the purpose of carrying pencils, keys and so forth and should be permitted—but when used as receptacles for facial powders should be confiscated.

This is the recommendation of the students' "citizenship committee" at the Muir School to the teachers. The committee's communication, the result of the recent P. T. A. suggestion that vanity cases be banned at the school, follows:

"To the teachers: The executive board of the Parent-Teacher association, at its last meeting, suggested that John Muir girls be forbidden the use of vanity cases at the school. The matter was taken before the citizenship committee and a meeting of the girls was called.

"At this meeting it was decided that vanity cases were useful in carrying pencils, pens, keys, etc., and that it would work a hardship on many to forbid the use of such cases. It was unanimously agreed by the girls that teachers be asked to take away cases from girls who were using them on the grounds, in the class rooms or in the halls for purposes of facial adornment, and have keys and other necessary articles removed. Vanity cases when taken are to be kept by the teachers for a week. If they can not be kept in a secure place in your room they may be sent to Miss Kelso's office.

"Will teachers co-operate most heartily in helping the girls solve this problem?"

"CITIZENSHIP COMMITTEE."

DIG FOR GOLD BUT FINDS ONLY WATER

MANHATTAN, Kan., March 23.—Undaunted by the fact that the hole they had dug was so deep they had struck water, a party of negroes continued to dig in search of a "pot of gold" in the back yard of Mrs. Amanda Cruz's home here.

It was in a dream that Mrs. Cruz "saw" the pot of gold coins. Having a reputation among negroes as a clairvoyant, a number of volunteers at once began search at the point designated by Mrs. Cruz. Today the hole extended over most of the back yard and was thirty feet deep. A pump was used to remove the water seeping in.

HATCHED AT SEA

FOR DODGE, Iowa, March 23.—O. L. Boehm, local Rhode Island and red fancier, has received a letter from C. Wood, 48 Whittle street, Saint Helen's Lane, England, to whom a setting of fifteen eggs by Mr. Boehm. He reports that six of them hatched despite the long journey. Several chickens have been shipped by Mr. Boehm to various parts of the earth, the latest being the shipment of a cockerel and two hens to New Zealand. Another shipment was sent to Australia. A few settings of eggs will be shipped to England in the near future. Mr. Boehm says that people are beginning setting early this year, as he has shipped about 5000 eggs during the past week, 1500 being the record day.

HOSE OF SHEER CHIFFON WINS BIG FAVOR

The bewildering array of countless styles which are placed before us in such profusion nowadays make it possible for a woman to use so much more artistic imagination in expressing her personality as well as her taste. And of these greatly varied offerings, hose is far from being the least.

The plain black silk stocking which was worn for so long by the smartly dressed woman is scarcely ever seen nowadays. Chiffon with its fine, sheer beauty is seen whenever a plain stocking is worn, and strange as it may sound, if you wish black do not buy black. The clever woman chooses gunmetal. This shade looks black when it is worn, but it makes the hose seem much more expensively fine. And with a black frock and shoes, the effect is wholly charming. But black is the only frock with which black hose are worn. If your frock be any shade of gray or tan, the stockings should match it even when they are worn with black shoes. If your shoes are of colored suede or have nude inserts, of course, the hose must match the shoes. With a very dark dress it is far better to have the hose of a lighter shade than the frock. And these colored hose are quite correct with a black street frock. For the ideal of the mode is still the fawn colored stocking. For dresser wear the lace clock is quite the thing in chiffon, though the plain chiffon hose are appropriate at all times.

For Sport Wear.

For sports wear the silk have given way to the imported English silk and wool stockings. They are much more practical for summer than the all wool and being much softer, many women find them far more comfortable.

And in such fascinating colors can these hose be found, that our ankles are going to be more charmingly clad than ever. These colors offer ample opportunity to have our hose match either our sweaters or our sport frocks. For the fad for the matching of hose is carried into the world of sports. But if you do not choose to wear these gay colors, you will look perfectly stunning if you pick out those with large diagonal checks of all shades of gray or tan. At times these silk and wool hose are clocked or else they have drop-stitch stripes. Seldom are they perfectly plain.

Of course, with the silk sports frock or sports skirts the silk hose must be worn either in white, light gray or fawn, with matching shoes. But on the golf links or tennis court, wool is the thing.

PLAN CEREMONIES.

OELWEIN, Ia., March 23.—While the exact date for laying the cornerstone of the Fayette county courthouse has not been definitely decided, it is planned to do it in May of this year. Governor Kendall has accepted an invitation to speak at the ceremony, and also Hanford MacNider, past national commander of the American Legion.

DOLLAR BILL FIGURES IN TREMAINE HEARING

Fred Tremaine, father of Alberta Meadows, hammer murder victim, and D. H. Witney, arrested with Tremaine on speeding charges here several weeks ago, were awaiting superior court proceedings against them on grand larceny charges in Los Angeles.

After a preliminary hearing, in which a torn dollar bill was said to have played an important part, Justice Baird held the pair to answer.

The men were charged with the theft of an automobile, owned by a salesman, fifty pounds of candy and more than $500.

According to evidence introduced by the state, a dollar bill was attached to a punchboard, and the men, in tearing it off, left a fragment from one corner. A bill found on Tremaine was said to have matched the fragment.

NEW ARREST MADE IN WELL RIG THEFT CASE

Another link was added to the chain of evidence which authorities were preparing against the twelve men arrested in connection with the asserted mammoth oil thieving program, as Chris Buell, Irvine, was arrested by Deputy Sheriff G. E. McClellan and held for Long Beach authorities.

According to word which authorities here received, Buell hired a certain truckman to haul the stolen pipe. Questioned at length by Sheriff Sam Jernigan, he was said to have been unable to give satisfactory explanations, and was turned over to the Long Beach police.

Candelaria District

Candelaria, an old silver-mining camp in western Nevada, has produced $20,000,000, mainly during the seventies and eighties of the last century. The ore worked in those early days averaged $40, $50, or more a ton, but such ore has long been exhausted, and the attempt now being made to revive the camp is based on the belief that there is still in the ground considerable ore of moderate grade—ore carrying 10 to 15 ounces of silver to the ton—from which a profit may be won by modern methods of mining and metallurgy. A brief report issued by the United States Geological Survey, Department of the Interior, indicates that the future prosperity of Candelaria is not to be sought by exploring to greater depth but must be won by working ground that lies above the deepest levels already worked. The progress made in metallurgy has solved the problem of reducing economically the rebellious silver ore of Candelaria, but the efficient mining of the ore—its discovery and extraction at a lower cost than was possible in bonanza days—is a matter in which the passage of time has so unreservedly favored the present generation.

MILL RUNS DAY AND NIGHT.

BEMIDJI, Minn., March 23.—Officials of the Crookston Lumber company sounded the keynote of returning prosperity this week in an announcement that the big lumber mill of that concern would open day and night shifts for the coming season on March 26 and from that date the mill will be operated to its capacity during the year.

LAW DECISION TO HIT SPEED 'COPS' HERE?

Motorcycle officers of Orange county continued "on the job" today, notwithstanding decision by the state supreme court that such officers had no legal authority by which they may collect compensation from county funds.

Without knowing the details of the case on which the decision was based, W. C. Jerome, county auditor, said today, the supreme court decision seemed to support him in his recent contention that the county could not legally pay the salary of O. K. Carr, who is employed by the district attorney as a special investigator.

The case before the court was taken from the superior court of San Mateo county. Jerome understands that in that county employment of the motorcycle officers is by the district attorney, the same policy as is used in this county. If that is the case, in his opinion, it means clearly that Orange county officers cannot be paid with county funds.

District Attorney A. P. Nelson was in Los Angeles today and his opinion on the situation was not available. Deputy District Attorney C. N. Mozley said that he could not express an opinion on the situation without knowing the details of the case and decision. He expects to get copies of these soon.

ALLEGED INTOXICATED DRIVER IS ARRESTED

Arrested at Fourth and Bush streets last night by Officer Howell, G. G. Gentry, Whittier, was facing charges of operating an automobile while under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

According to Howell, Gentry was unable to navigate with any degree of accuracy, when he was arrested. He was held in the county jail pending his arraignment before Justice J. B. Cox.

ODELL, FORMER GOVERNOR OF N. Y., HERE

Still hale and hearty, with a keen memory for reminiscence, former Governor Benjamin D. Odell, of New York, was in Santa Ana yesterday afternoon in company with Ferdinand R. Bain, president of the Southern Counties Gas company, and W. A. Breckenridge, vice-president of the Southern California Edison company.

Odell is on his way to Hawaii, on a pleasure trip. While in Los Angeles he was shown about by Bain. The party spent two or three hours in Santa Ana. The former governor expressed himself as much interested in the Santa Ana high school buildings.

While here the party stopped at the First National bank for a call upon W. B. Williams, its cashier, who is a director of the Southern Counties Gas company.

Odell was governor of New York from 1901 to 1905, and for many years was one of the outstanding figures of the nation. He said that he plans to attend the next Republican national convention.

2 IN STOLEN GOODS CASE GIVEN LIBERTY

Frank and Galan Diggs, pleading guilty to charges of receiving stolen property, were granted probation today by Superior Judge R. Y. Williams.

On the recommendation of Probation Officer R. R. Miller, and Deputy District Attorney C. N. Moseley, who claimed that the lads had no part in the theft of the automobile which they were charged with receiving, the court placed them on probation for two years.

FLOWER GROWTH MYSTERIES TO BE SEEN IN FILMS HERE

With a sublime disregard for established laws of nature, there will be exhibited at the high school auditorium tonight, all the slow process by which flowers live and thrive and grow throughout a season, encompassed in a single evening's entertainment.

Arthur C. Pillsbury, a lover of nature in all her moods, is the modern wizard who, with his knowledge of photography, has made possible the seemingly impossible. And the films, which are the results of study and close association with growing things, are said to stand in a class by themselves for sheer beauty and for interest, as well as for value to botanists.

The movement to bring Dr. Pillsbury to Orange county was fostered by the Congress of Mothers and Parent Teacher association, fourth district, as a part of their efforts toward flower conservation and an interesting program for wild flower week.

To End County Tour.

Beginning last Monday, Dr. Pillsbury has lectured and shown his films at various school centers of the county and today, an afternoon talk at 3 o'clock to be followed by one at 7:30 tonight at the high school auditorium, will see the conclusion of his Orange county tour.

In preparation for wild flower week and the Pillsbury pictures, schools of the county have been collecting specimens of the wild growth of this section. In making these collections, care was exerted to observe a few simple rules in order that the cause of conservation be emphasized. A careful gathering of specimens was encouraged for the botanical knowledge which it yielded but reckless waste of flowers was forbidden. High and grammar schools were offered prizes for the most complete collections with specimens most neatly arranged and identified at least by their common names.

Many Pupils Compete.

The lectures and pictures by Dr. Pillsbury have served as incentive to many of the pupils competing

WIFE DENIES RUMOR OF RECONCILIATION WITH NOTED AUTHOR

LOS ANGELES, March 23.—Following a meeting at Santa Barbara, a report was circulated that H. H. Van Loan, well known author, and his wife had effected a reconciliation, but this is not true, according to Mrs. Van Loan who denied today there had been a reconciliation.

"I simply went to Santa Barbara as a friend of my husband to listen to his address on the subject of scenarios," Mrs. Van Loan explained. "He told me my presence would give him inspiration."

"Of course," Mrs. Van Loan, who has been separated from her husband for two years continued, "if he awakens the old romantic love in me, we might try it again—but I'll insist on being the only woman. We've talked of a reconciliation but there has been nothing definite decided."

CEREMONIES IN DEDICATION OF MEMORIAL DRIVE DUE

Hundreds of Boy Scouts to Attend Exercises at County Park

PROGRAM IS READY

Patriotic Organizations and Public In General Are Invited to Attend

Tomorrow, almost within the shadow of oaks that are more than 500 years old, another oak is to be planted. It is to be planted on the Memorial drive, established in memory of men and women whose lives were given to America during the World War.

Many other oaks have been planted on the drive, together with California holly, Catalina cherries and mountain lilac, and the tree to be planted tomorrow is to be but an evidence of the willingness of the Boy Scouts of Orange county to maintain this drive. The planting of an oak is to be a part of the ceremonies in dedication of Memorial drive, which occupies strips along the paved highway for a half mile west from the west entrance of the Orange county park, in Santiago canyon.

The ceremonies are to take place at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, and are to be in charge of the Memorial drive committee, composed of representatives of the Boy Scouts county council and of the board of supervisors.

Public invited. The public in general is invited to attend the dedication. Special invitations have been sent to various patriotic organizations of the county. Through the county council of the American Legion, the invitation has been extended to every Legion post in the county. It is expected that several hun-

Here are Proposals on Thursday's Bonds Vote Ballot

The propositions to be voted on at the bond election here next Thursday, (between 8 a. m. and 7 p. m., the hours during which the polls will be open) with brief explanations of the purposes of each proposal, are as follows:

"Shall the city of Santa Ana incur a bonded debt in the sum of $150,000 with which to pay the cost of the completion of the municipal water works?"

According to Walter Wray, water superintendent, all two-inch mains on streets that may be improved in future by paving, will be replaced with 4, 6, 8 or 10-inch mains, according to requirements of sections in which installations are to be made. All new installations will be of cast iron pipe and will last 400 or 500 years, he says. New lines will be laid on Broadway and on French, Birch and Garvey streets and in the business district where needed. The issue includes provision for fifty additional fire hydrants. Wray points out that under the plans fire protection for the city will be greatly increased. He estimates the fund will supply the water pipe needs of the city for the next two or three years.

"Shall the city of Santa Ana incur a bonded debt in the sum of $25,000 with which to pay the cost of completion of the electric fire alarm system?"

John Luxembourg, fire chief, says this will provide for rebuilding the fire alarm system, and installing forty new boxes, including replacement of twenty-six now in use. Eight circuits will be established so that in future, when conditions demand, additional boxes may be installed at a cost of the boxes only.

"Shall the city of Santa Ana incur a bonded debt in the sum of $12,500 with which to pay the costs of a fire engine house in the easterly part of the city?"

Luxembourg explains that this is for the purchase of a site and erection of a fire hall in the east part of the city.

"Shall the city of Santa Ana incur a bonded debt in the sum of $12,500 with which to pay the cost of a fire house in the westerly part of the city?"

This is for the same purpose mentioned in the preceding proposal, except that it is proposed to establish a fire house in the west part of the city.

"Shall the city of Santa Ana incur a bonded debt in the sum of $30,000 to pay the cost of paving a portion of West Fifth street and the construction of a concrete culvert therein?"

Edward Dahl, street superintendent, says this fund is to be used for paving one-third of the cost of rebuilding the pavement on West Fifth street, from Baker street west to the city limits. The street will be paved full width to a point near the Pacific Electric tracks crossing the thoroughfare. From there to the city limits the roadbed will be twenty feet wide. The proposal to construct a culvert to supplant the city bridge is included in the bond issue.

It is pointed out that property owners on the street have paid once for paving the street, and that many are still paying on the costs of the original work. The street has gone to pieces. It is believed only fair that the whole city should bear a portion of the burden of rebuilding, in view of the fact that the street is a main artery into the city from the west.

"Shall the city of Santa Ana incur a bonded debt in the sum of $25,000 with which to pay the cost of fire apparatus?"

Luxembourg says that with this amount of money the department will purchase a 750-gallon pump engine for the east side station and a chemical squad fire truck for the main station to replace the White

MUSICAL MINDS PREPARE FOR BIG CONTEST

List of Compositions and Details of County-Wide Event Given

A Niagara of music is to be turned loose on Orange county.

This became increasingly evident here today, as a list of classical compositions, to be used in connection with the forthcoming music memory contest, was announced.

This list of twenty-five selections, officially released today by Miss Margaret L. Wickes, head of the music department of the Santa Ana high school, follows:

Here is List:

1. Toreador song from Carmen.
2. Minuet by Beethoven.
3. Beautiful Evening Star from Tannhauser.
4. Rigoletto quartette.
5. Sextette from Lucia di Lammermoor.
6. Meditation from Thais.
7. Celeste Aida from Aida.
8. The Swan, by Saint Saens.
9. Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen.
10. Elegie by Massenet.
11. From the Land of the Sky.
12. Anitra's Dance, from Peer Gynt Suite.
13. Intermezzo from Cavalleria Rusticana.
14. Largo, from New York Symphony.
15. March Militaire, by Schubert.
16. Minute Waltz, by Chopin.
17. Finale to Overture William Tell.
18. Lass with the Delicate Air, Old English song.
19. Hungarian Dance, Brahms.
20. O Rest in the Lord, from Elijah.
21. Hallelujah Chorus from Messiah.
22. Unfold Ye Portals, from the Redemption.
23. Stars and Stripes Forever.
24. Pilgrimage, from Il Trovatore.
25. Pilgrim's Chorus, from Tannhauser.

Plans for Contest. At the same time, details of the method by which the winning team will be determined, were made public.

"A musician, probably a pianist, will play over each composition on the list," Miss Wickes said. "As each is finished the students will write down on a piece of paper four points in connection with the selection, the title, its source, its composer and his nationality. Another list of the selections, containing complete information on these four points, will be issued shortly."

"In the final contest, when the representatives from the schools entered gather to hear the compositions and make their answers, the spelling of all names will have much to do with the decision."

The date and judges for the final contest will not be named until the music supervisors of the county schools meet here next month. The preliminary contest in each school will be held ten days before the inter-school competition. Each school will enter a team of five pupils in the deciding affair.

Will Benefit Students. The contest is expected to have a beneficial effect on many Orange county persons in addition to students from the fourth grade through the high school who will be eligible for the prize awards.

The music supervisors will ask that the compositions, which they believe to be the twenty-five leading church services, be played at church services, at assemblies and at theaters. Each number will be identified before it is played.

In this way, it was pointed out, hundreds of persons will have an opportunity to familiarize themselves with the name and strain of the best that has been written by the world's foremost musical composers.

PLAN DEDICATION OF COLLEGE BUILDINGS

Owing to the general interest which has been expressed in the dedicatory exercises of the new buildings of Pomona college tomorrow, it has been decided to hold in addition to the morning gathering, addressed by Dr. Henry S. Pritchett, president of the Carnegie Foundation, an afternoon meeting at 2 o'clock in Bridges Hall of Music, at which a series of addresses will be delivered by men prominent in educational work, it was learned here today.

The principal speaker will be John Adams, LL.D., Emeritus Professor of Education in the University of London. His subject will be "Qualities of the English and of the American Teacher." Other speakers will be William Arnold Shanklin, LL.D., president of Wesleyan University, Middletown, Conn.; Flavel Luther, LL.D., president of Trinity College, Hartford, Conn.; Graham Taylor, LL.D., of Chicago Theological Seminary, and head of Chicago Commons; William R. Webb, LL.D., ex-United States Senator, and head of the Webb School for Boys at Bell Buckle, Tenn.

PRINCESS EXPECTS NO VISIT OF BIRD

DOORN, March 23.—Princess Hermine, the ex-kaiser's bride, is not expecting a visit from the stork.

G. A. R. READY TO WELCOME CAL. CHIEF

Commander to Be Entertained Here Tomorrow Afternoon

Elaborate plans for the entertainment of Commander S. W. Hopkins of the department of California and Nevada, G. A. R., were today being completed by the committee of local G. A. R. men who were instrumental in inducing the distinguished guest and his staff to make their first visit to Santa Ana at this time.

H. W. Smith, commander of Sedgwick Post No. 17, G. A. R. with Adjutant F. M. Grigby and Commander S. W. Sutton, composed the committee making the arrangements and were continuing their efforts to make the occasion one of the memorable events of the year in patriotic circles.

Comes From San Diego. Commander Hopkins, accompanied by the assistant adjutant-general and a staff of three men, is expected to arrive by automobile from San Diego by 1 p. m. tomorrow.

Immediately after their arrival they will be luncheon guests of the general arrangements committee, after which they will repair to G. A. R. hall for the afternoon's exercises.

With a cordial invitation extended to all members of the post and to the various affiliated organizations, including Relief Corps members, Shiloh Circle, Ladies of the G. A. R. and Sons and Daughters of Veterans, one of the largest crowds ever gathered at G. A. R. hall is anticipated.

To Extend Welcome. To Commander E. T. Langley has been delegated the honor of offering the brief welcoming address after which local members expect to have an interesting group of talks from the distinguished visitors, including one from Commander Hopkins.

Affiliated patriotic organizations, in showing their interest in the occasion, have planned to serve suitable refreshments at the close of the formal program of addresses and during the social hour everyone will be given the opportunity to meet and greet the department commander and his staff.

EIGHT CABINET MEN STARTED POOR CLAIM

SAN FRANCISCO, March 23.—"Eight members of President Harding's cabinet started their careers stone broke," said Dr. Charles Aubrey Eaton, president of the American Educational Association and former editor of Leslie's Magazine, in an address before a joint luncheon meeting of the San Francisco Commercial Club and Chamber of Commerce.

In discussing present-day industrial and political problems, Dr. Eaton defined progress as the growing participation of more and more people in more and more of the good things of life.

"When we have a wide distribution of consumable wealth we have made economic progress. When political power has been given to the people," he said, "if they are intelligent and good, we have made political progress. When we have opened the door of opportunity for education for everyone, we have made intellectual progress. And this growing participation of more and more people in more and more of the good things of life is absolutely normal, just, reasonable and right. Our worst in America today is better than the best of any other nation. And Europe itself, with its ruin, its turmoil, its crumbling civilization and its sufferings, is better off than it was in the middle ages."

Successes Method. The industrial problem is a question of how best to organize the machinery of production and distribution so that every citizen will receive his fair share of the commonwealth which he has helped to produce, Dr. Eaton declared.

"The responsibilities of the employer are: First, that he shall recognize his responsibility as national leader and champion of his own employees," he said. "Second, that he shall cultivate a real human interest. Third, that he shall give to his industry good management."

$30,000 IN JEWELS MISSING AS GOTHAM BEAUTY FOUND DEAD

DOROTHY KING.

NEW YORK, March 23.—Detectives working on the mystery surrounding the murder of one of Broadway's most popular models and show girls, are directing their efforts toward finding a "society raffles" or a member of the underworld, two characters who are known to have been admirers of the girl.

The body of the girl was found in her apartment early in the morning. Indications were she had been murdered early the previous evening. No one was seen, or heard to enter to leave the apartment and investigators have failed thus far to find a clue to the slayer.

Investigation revealed that $30,000 worth of gems had been taken by the thieves. These came to the girl in the form of presents from a New York millionaire.

LONDON, March 23.—It is hard for Americans to understand the interest English people take in the maiden speeches of new members of parliament. The House whips scan the new members with the same keen scrutiny with which the baseball managers in America watch the rookies at spring training camps, and the veteran parliamentarians even quit their tea to flock back to the chamber when the word is passed around that a coming Gladstone or Disraeli is delivering his maiden speech.

So far there have been two finds in the present parliamentary session. One is a laborite and the other a conservative. The former is a poet and the latter a wit. The Conservative newcomer, R. Mitchell Banks, delighted the Commons with a brilliant satirical attack on the government's policy of staying in Mesopotamia, long a sore point with British taxpayers. Mr. Banks knew what he was talking about for he served with the British army in Iraq. His cleverest ally was: "I think we purchased from the peace conference not one pup, but a whole litter of pups, of which Iraq is the veriest monster. It was an ugly animal and it was in the throes of distemper, and a brick and a bucket of water is the only cure."

Labor's debating find is James Welsh from Coalbridge, Lanarkshire. He has a reputation as a poet and has written a novel called "The Underworld," one of England's best sellers in 1920.

During the debate on unemployment he moved hard-bolled Tories to tears in contrasting the pomp and splendor of the king's opening of parliament with the squalor and misery in a miner's hut. There was not much logic to his speech, but, like Mr. Banks, Mr. Welsh knew what he was talking about, for he was a miner himself, and the realism and beautiful imagery of his language thrilled his hearers.

The story of Mr. Welsh's life is in itself a poem. He was born in a mining village in Lanarkshire, the fourth of a family of twelve. When he was 11 years old he left school

CITY'S GROWTH HELD TO HANG ON $150,000 WATER BOND SUCCESS

Wray Urges Folk to Boost Development Here by Approving Issue

DEPARTMENT JAMMED

Executives Propose That County Seat Shall Have Adequate System

Future development and expansion of the city is dependent in a large measure on the voting of an issue of $150,000 in bonds to provide funds for the purchase of pipe and installation of new water mains, according to Walter Wray, superintendent of the municipal water department.

Wray today urged that every voter in the city give this situation earnest consideration and then vote at the bond election to be held next Thursday. He said he anticipated a favorable vote.

He pointed out that the city had grown so rapidly in the past two years, and was continuing in its expansion stride, that the water department could no longer keep step with developments.

The wave of paving that has swept the city in the past year—and this wave, it was made clear, in indicative of a progressive people—has sorely taxed the department.

Population Total Jumps. Increased population has made it necessary to tear up old lines and replace them with new and larger lines. New streets and new subdivisions have had to be taken care of, for without water the subdivisions would be failures and without water new residences would not be erected, Wray pointed out.

Wray estimated that the $150,000 fund will provide pipe and equipment for the department for two or three years, if the ratio of growth of the past two years is maintained in the next two or three years. No one in Santa Ana, he emphasized, will admit that there is a possibility of the building pace decreasing, but on the contrary, they believe it will be even more rapid.

Aid Fire Protection. Better fire protection for the business district and installation of loops that will give every part of the city an adequate water supply is part of the program of the department. The new installations of larger mains will be programmed so that in future developments it will not be necessary to rebuild mains.

"We cannot afford to retard the progress of Santa Ana through the lack of water facilities," said Wray. "The city is growing in all directions. To serve the new residence districts new lines are required and it is necessary to replace present lines with new and larger pipe."

"We must have the money to maintain the city's progress. Voters of Santa Ana cannot afford to halt that progress when $150,000 is all that is needed to continue the city in its present progressive and population-increasing stride."

Of course fairy stories like Puss in Boots are nice, but true stories are nicer. That's why you'll like this one about really truly shoes

We've named these shoes Pussinboots after those in the story because—well you know what wonderful boots those were and these are just as fine.

Right now Pussinboots to wear on Easter are most important. Naturally they are bright and shiny, but they've been sturdily made, too.

NEW IDEALS FOR EDUCATION STRESSED AT MASON'S MEET

Men and women who last night attended the "school week meeting" held under the auspices of the two Santa Ana Masonic lodges in the Masonic temple, were today experiencing a pride in Santa Ana school accomplishments, brought about by the improvements suggested about by facts set forth by speakers, and a determination to bring by the orators.

About 100 men and women, mothers and fathers, and school teachers, attended the meeting, which was featured by musical selections by high school pupils and addresses by educational authorities. The assembly took place at the request of high Masonic officials, who requested that similar observances be held elsewhere during this week.

V. W. Whitson, president, prefacing his introductions with brief remarks, regarding the principles of Masonry, and their relation to education.

Lad Scores Hit.
A vocal number, "Gypsy Trail," rendered by Robert Bradford, 15-year-old high school student, was one of the features of the program. Bradford's voice was excellent, his modulation unusually fine, and hearty applause greeted his solo, which was followed by two Spanish numbers as encores.

In speaking on the city schools, Superintendent J. A. Cranston traced the mammoth gains which have been made since he came here 17 years ago.

At that time there were seven school buildings, of which three remain now. Since then, eighteen other buildings have been erected, Cranston said.

Seventeen years ago there were 1,500 pupils in the Santa Ana schools. Cranston said; last year there were 5,000, and last month the attendance was 5,800. When the speaker came to Santa Ana there were 54 teachers, as compared to 184 now.

Methods Now Altered.
"The methods in those days were different from those now employed," Cranston said. "Seventeen years ago, schooling was more or less a knockdown and drag out affair. Now the honor system replaces the rod, to the great benefit of the pupils and the schools."

Miss Helen Lamson, citizenship and Americanization worker among the Mexicans, outlined her work, lauding its place among the foreign population of Santa Ana, and citing pleasing results which have been obtained. She pointed out that education does not alone pertain to children, but that the school system, to be adequate, should deal with adults also.

A violin solo, capably rendered by Jack Langley, high school pupil, was well received.

Tracing the activities of the Parent-Teacher association from its beginning, Mrs. Earl Morris, president of the county federation, told of the place which that organization occupied in the educational program of Orange county.

Tells City's Duty.
Claiming that he had been a teacher over the finest group of scholars that the world has known for the past twenty-five years, Colonel H. T. Matthews, U. S. A., a former Santa Ana man, spoke briefly on the city's duty in educational matters.

"The country showed, several years ago, that it had a right to the bodies and lives of its young men," Colonel Matthews said. "Now it should show that it has a right to the minds of its citizenry."

"Santa Ana schools have fine buildings and equipment, but that is not all. It is your duty as citizens to vote on all questions pertaining to school affairs."

The speaker urged an active interest in affairs pertaining to schools. He urged voters to become acquainted with the men running for school boards, and to vote intelligently.

Predicts New Wars.
Urging military preparedness, Col. Matthews said that there would be other wars within a few years. He urged military training in schools, not "to create blood-thirsty men, but clean, capable citizen soldiery."

Two piano numbers were exceptionally well rendered by Russell Rollins, high school pupil.

S. C. Hartranft, member of the Fullerton board of education, spoke of the need of Christian teachers, and stressed the advantages of the Bible in public schools.

TALBERT

TALBERT, March 23.—Two new houses are being erected west of Talbert on land formerly a part of the Courreges ranch.

One of the houses is the property of Mrs. Maude Wells and is located on a five acre tract recently purchased by her, and the other belongs to Mrs. A. C. Burney and is located on a two and one-half acre tract.

A community well is to be bored on the property line, furnishing a water supply for both places. Mrs. Burney's land is located a short distance south of the boulevard adjoining the ranch of her son, Lon Wells, and here she plans on building at least two more houses.

Property in this section is at a premium as indicated by an offer received a few days ago of $1600 per acre for this land which she purchased four months ago for one-half that amount.

A basket dinner is to be held on the local church grounds next Sunday in connection with the revival services and quarterly conference. This plan will enable those from a distance to attend both the morning and afternoon services over which the presiding elder, Rev. Dr. Werlein of Los Angeles will preside and everyone will be welcome.

A. P. Vincent who has been on the sick list for several days is convalescing.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Giesler had as a Sunday guest at their home a friend, Mrs. Noble, Long Beach.

TWO CANDIDATES IN ANAHEIM RACE

ANAHEIM, March 23.—The names of George W. Sloop and J. L. Findlay will be voted upon at the election for school directors, those two being the only candidates to file. Sloop is up for re-election. He is president of the grammar school board. The grammar school election will be held in the junior high school building and the high school election in that building.

Glorious Hair Guaranteed!

New Hair Grown in 90 Days. Falling Hair Stopped or Money Refunded. This New Way

Science discovers most falling, lusterless hair due to simple infection (Sebum). Now quickly overcomes it

This offers you a test, under written money-back guarantee, of the remarkable Van Ess method which is bringing hair beauty to the nation.

Hair softly gleaming, a world of it—countless women now enjoy it!

The test we offer you, they made. And every day, scores write to thank us for it.

Your own druggist or department store gives you the signed warrant. Falling hair stopped. New hair grown in 90 days. If the treatment fails, it will cost you nothing.

That Infected Sebum

Science now traces most hair troubles to a simple infection of that oil in your scalp, called Sebum.

It has been learned that hair roots rarely ever die. And they can be revived.

We have proved this conclusively by actually growing new hair in 91 cases in 100.

We do it by combating that infected Sebum in a new way—a scientific way heretofore unknown. Results are quick and amazing. And so certain that we have no fear to guarantee our method.

Why Your Hair Lacks Life

Sebum is an oil that forms at the follicles of the hair. Its natural function is to supply the hair with oil to make it soft and waxy. But, science now proves that it is also the cause of most hair troubles.

Frequently it becomes infected. It clogs on the scalp; clogs the follicles and plugs them. You can see it in your hair, either in the form of dandruff or an oily excretion at the hair roots.

Bacteria by the millions breed in it and often inflame the scalp. Then they begin to feed upon the hair. Soon falling hair starts. In a short time all the natural lustre and beauty of your hair are gone.

But—and note this scientific fact—remove the infected Sebum and the hair reverts back to the softness and brilliancy it displayed when you were a school girl.

The Van Ess treatment accomplishes that result. We know you will doubt it. So we guarantee each 90-day treatment.

New hair grown (in 90 days) and falling hair stopped. Your own druggist gives you our guarantee to do these things. He signs it. If we fail, your money will be refunded by us without argument. Go to any druggist or department store today. Ask for Van Ess Liquid Scalp Massage. Written guarantee accompanies each 3-bottle treatment.

Now on sale at C. S. Kelly, White Cross Drug Store and all drug and dept. stores.

Note This New Way

—It massages the treatment directly to the follicles of the hair

You can see from illustration that Van Ess is not a "tonic." It combines a massage and lotion in one treatment. You do not rub it in with your fingers. Each package comes with a rubber massage cap. The cap is hollow. Just invert bottle, rub your head and nipples automatically feed lotion down to follicles of the scalp where it can do some good. At the same time the nipples give your head a massage.

It is very easy to apply. One minute each day is enough.

TRY MAGNESIA FOR STOMACH TROUBLE

It Neutralizes Stomach Acidity, Prevents Food Fermentation, Sour Gassy Stomach and Acid Indigestion. Doubtless if you are a sufferer from indigestion, you have already tried various digestive aids and you know these things will not cure your trouble—in some cases do not even give relief.

But before giving up hope and deciding you are a chronic dyspeptic just try the effect of a little Bismarck Magnesia—not the ordinary commercial carbonate, citrate, or milk, but the pure Bismarck Magnesia, which you can obtain from practically any druggist in either powdered or tablet form.

Take a teaspoonful of the powder or two compressed tablets with a little water after your next meal, and see what a difference this makes. It will instantly neutralize the dangerous, harmful acid in the stomach which now causes your food to ferment and sour, making gas, wind, flatulence, heartburn and the bloated or heavy, lumpy feeling that seems to follow most everything you eat.

You will find that provided you take a little Bismarck Magnesia immediately after a meal, you can eat almost anything and enjoy it without any danger of pain or discomfort to follow and moreover, the continued use of the Bismarck Magnesia cannot injure the stomach in any way so long as there are any symptoms of acid indigestion.—adv.

WOMAN SOUGHT IN NEW PRODUCE BUNKO

A search which postal inspectors began in Los Angeles for a woman asserted to have instituted a new type of bunko game, had extended to Santa Ana today, as Postmaster C. D. Overshiner received a communication containing a resume of the suspect's alleged operations.

The circular follows:

"A woman giving the name of Mrs. H. E. Wilson recently perpetrated a produce swindle at Los Angeles, securing several hundred dollars' worth of eggs from various surrounding communities. She made overtures to purchase a store at 7720 South Main street, Los Angeles, but delayed consummation of the transaction on various pretexts. She sent out cards under the heading of 'Frank's Grocery Store,' giving the street address mentioned, inviting shipments by express.

"The express shipments were promptly removed from the express office and were peddled at residences in the city only one call being made in a neighborhood. In this work she used an automobile hired from and driven by a Los Angeles man. She failed to pay him $65 due him for his work, or for the printing.

"The woman's description is as follows:

"Age, 40 to 45; height, 5 feet six; weight about 160 pounds; fair complexion; red hair; gray woolly coat; gray turban hat matching coat; black shabby shoes; dark, low neck dress; hands rough and tanned; face also tanned; penciled or shaved eyebrows, leaving blue mark above."

PLACENTIA

PLACENTIA, March 23.—For a house and lot Mrs. C. G. Carlson has exchanged her five acre orange grove on North Bradford to Eugene Bercof of Anaheim.

Mrs. Carlson does not intend to live on the Anaheim property which is north and west of town, but will stay on the ranch till more definite plans are made as to where she and her family will locate. The orange grove has been owned by the Carlsons for twenty years.

Mrs. Albert Quevel honored her husband's birthday anniversary Sunday by entertaining a number of his friends to a five course dinner, which included a prettily decorated cake with candles.

Those present were Otto Piepenbrink of Los Angeles, Mrs. Claude Wallace of Burbank, Alfred Durand of Lawndale, Mrs. Joe Paulchon, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Allee, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Quevel and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Piepenbrink of Fullerton.

Mr. and Mrs. August Piepenbrink have bought twenty acres of grape and alfalfa land twenty miles north of Bakersfield and are recording two or three weeks there making some improvements.

RAIL CHIEF SEES BRIGHT OUTLOOK

With an increase of twenty per cent in the travel over the company's lines to this state from the East and Middle-West during the past winter season and the best outlook for much improved business the coming summer, W. J. Black, passenger traffic manager of the Santa Fe System, who is visiting the coast on a periodical inspection trip, predicts unbounded prosperity throughout the West during the year 1923.

Black points to a marked improvement in nearly every condition and element that has to do with the development and progress of both city and country.

He said reports received by him showed an increase in the sales of agricultural implements for January, 1923, amounting to $5 per cent over the same month last year.

The building activities during the month, he said, particularly in the San Joaquin Valley and Southern California, showed an increase of 15 per cent over the same period of 1922.

The production of petroleum in California broke all records for January.

An increase of 1,369,000 boxes of navel oranges in the citrus belts over the season of 1920-21 is indicated.

Lumber, mining, live stock and other industries, he said, likewise report improved conditions for the first month.

THE BEST MEDICINE FOR WOMEN

When Mr. Myers of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, stepped in to the drug store and asked his druggist for the best medicine he had in his store for woman's ills, is it any wonder he was handed a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? Mrs. L. K. Myers in writing of it says: "I had been weak, run down and had a pain in my left side for a long time, so I could not do my work. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me in a short time so I was able to do all of my housework including washing and ironing, and now I feel fine all the time."

As Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound holds the record for benefiting 98 women out of every 100 women who take it, it will pay every suffering woman to try it.—Adv.

PETER B. KYNE PICTURE

A photoplay which fans should not overlook came to the West End theater last night. It is a highly diverting comedy of married life, with a substratum of drama, written by Peter B. Kyne and produced by Goldwyn Pictures corporation under the able direction of E. Mason Hopper, called "Brothers Under the Skin."

The two men who sub-utaneous brotherhood is made manifest in the film are Craddock, a humble shipping clerk in a New York plumbing business and Kirtland, the vice president and manager of the firm. Both are having trouble with their wives—and for very similar causes. Milly, the shipping clerk's wife, believes in sharing her husband's joy but not his troubles. She lets him tiptoe about getting his own breakfast so as not to wake her from her "beauty sleep." She is a victim of the installment plan and buys more things than her husband's $30 a week can pay for.

The vice president's wife, Dorothy, must also have her beauty sleep in the mornings while her husband breakfasts and hurries off to the drug store and asked of him by buying a $3,000 fur coat. The shipping clerk is given $5 to deliver a note to Kirtland and while there overcomes a lesson in writing (given a happy ending by his hidden presence in the apartment) and goes home to try the same cave-man stuff on Milly. It time, she with her just as it had with her wealthy sister-under-the-skin and the two husbands face a new life with helping, loving wives who prove their love by presenting their husbands with children.

Director Hopper was given a magnificent cast in the persons of Helene Chadwick and Pat O'Malley as the poor couple, Claire Windsor and Norman Kerry as the wealthy couple, and Mae Busch as a divorcee.

"THE CHRISTIAN" SHOWING AT TEMPLE.

For the first time in the history of American film production a photoplay was released simultaneously in the United States and in England in the case of the production of "The Christian," directed by Maurice Tourneur, and now showing at the Temple theater.

The filming of the mob scene of "The Christian" in Trafalgar Square attracted so much newspaper attention throughout England that exhibitors began at once to display an unusual eagerness to book the film. The fact that permission of the city authorities to stage the motion picture scene in the famous Square was obtained at all caused a sensation in the city the like of which New York has never experienced.

In shops foreigners are frequently asked for dollars. Shopkeepers and clerks are anxious to have at least one as a souvenir. No American who desires to send a gift to a German friend can do better than mail crisp, new American bills. The high rate of exchange on the dollar is almost the sole topic of conversation in mixed gatherings, and fortunate is the man who can produce an American bill before astonished friends.

WEST END. TONIGHT and TOMORROW.

He was a terror among men but he didn't dare talk back to his little wife. And then one day he turned out to be a cave-man and his wife was the proudest lady on the block. Don't miss this one. It's the kind of picture the whole world loves.

What the Well-Dressed Woman Wears This Spring

By MARY BROOKS PICKEN
Vice-President Woman's Institute of Domestic Arts and Sciences, Scranton, Pa.

TO TRAVEL through the shops just now is to see many exquisite dress accessories. Necklaces of all colors and descriptions—one for every dress it seems—and lovely collars of lace, chiffon, organdy, all so exquisite or unusual in design that the plain dress may be beautifully ornamented by these ready aids, which are to be had in abundance. Necklaces have served a splendid purpose for line, helping especially with the plain boat neck. It seems their popularity has not diminished for they have become more simple, that is, they consist of a cord, chain, or ribbon with a pendant, in many cases. This is due, no doubt, to the suitability of such necklaces for wear with the figured materials that are so definitely favored this season.

There are many ribbon girdles and sashes, ribbon being especially favored for such uses this season. It seems that waistlines are lost sight of through their inconspicuousness or else are made dominating by very generous ribbon trims.

Parasols of lace, ribbon, colored silks, and some of gray cretonne are seen. Many are of bright colors and are very attractive.

Vests are colorful, ornate, and in many cases, especially desirable where a small hat is becoming.

Stockings, it seems, come in a color for every dress and for every pair of shoes. Many lace and clock stockings are worn, but there is this to be said of stockings: "Don't wear ornate or definitely colored ones unless you are very tall and can afford to sacrifice height, and then don't wear them unless your ankles are small enough to be attractive."

Shoes seem to have lost all their commonness and every pair, even when made for service, is attractive. "Straps" seem more popular than pumps, and these most often of soft patent leather.

Real discretion is necessary this season to avoid appearing over-dressed. The large designs in vivid colors make it necessary to caution oneself regarding the danger of an inharmonious assembling of dress and accessories. If the dress is ornate in design or trimming, the accessories must be plain, and if the dress is plain, embroidery or decorative accessories may be used, provided, of course, that they are all in accord with the purse, the parasol, the shoe buckles, and the kerchief and all these planned so as to be as appropriate for the hat as for the dress.

Purpose	Dress	Footwear	Hat	Coat	Gloves	Accessories
Business, shopping, or walking	Tailored dress, or skirt and blouse with plain suit of subdued color; accessories: handbag, shoes, hat, or parasol, all of matching material or tailored silk; dress of wool, 7- or 8-inch length; or very simple silk dress if coat is to be worn.	Low, walking type in brown, leather or white canvas or combination; hose: black, blue, or white.	Simple cloche or bob shape in small or medium size to harmonize with dress, suit, or coat; smart, neat, and serviceable; equally desirable. FUNERAL HELD FOR VICTIM OF ROTARY

HUNTINGTON BEACH, March 23.—The funeral services for Paul Schwenk, who was killed by the explosion of the oil drum Tuesday evening, were held yesterday afternoon at the Seale Undertaking parlors, Fullerton, the Rev. Luther Arthur of the local Baptist church officiating. Burial was at the Santa Ana cemetery.

Paul Schwenk was raised by Mrs. A. D. Dinmore who lives at the end of Walnut street on Second street. He was residing with her at the time of his death, which has recalled very clearly to his many local friends the grim uncertainty of life.

At eleven o'clock Tuesday morning, Mr. Schwenk got out of bed to receive the Rev. Arthur whom he had not seen for some years as he had but recently returned to the Beach from Sangor. During this interview he told in detail about a rifle accident in the Philippine islands, where he had been knocked unconscious for three days. Describing his life in the army he dwelt particularly upon the dire hardships of experiences in Siberia. When discussing his harrowing adventures at eleven o'clock in the morning, little did he think that he should meet his last one at ten o'clock the same evening.

Many Huntington Beach friends attended the services in Fullerton, among them were Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Dinmore, Mrs. Luther Arthur, Mrs. John Farwell, Miss A. Fredrick, Mr. and Mrs. Earl De Lapp.

LIONS HEAR ADDRESS.
HUNTINGTON BEACH, March 23.—How to be happy in life was the general theme discussed by Dr. C. J. Curran of New York City before the Lions' club Wednesday at their regular meeting. He brought many practical suggestions as well as theoretical ideas before the large attendance of business men of the city. Charles Patton was chairman of the day and the address was the main feature of the noon hour, and son Gordon.

SERVICE ANNOUNCED.
HUNTINGTON BEACH, March 23.—Rev. Luther Arthur, pastor of the Baptist church, has announced as his topics for the Sunday services "Laddie" or "The Church that Needed Nothing," for the morning and "The Death of a Soul" for the evening.

HARBOR COMMITTEE TO HELP NEWPORT NAMED BY CHAMBER

HUNTINGTON BEACH, March 23.—A "harbor committee" to work in conjunction with other communities in Orange county for the promotion of the county harbor was appointed at the meeting of the chamber of commerce Wednesday. The members of the committee are W. J. Ellery, J. A. Armitage and M. Sebre.

Plans for a membership campaign were discussed and the organization to promote this canvass undertaken. The money from such a campaign would be used for civic purposes in bringing improvements to the beach.

Aside from the general discussion covering ways and means of assisting in securing the county harbor and the new membership idea, routine business was the order of the meeting.

PROGRAM FEATURE OF AID MEETING

HUNTINGTON BEACH, March 23.—Devotions and a special program were the features of the regular meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist church held in the "Harvester Bungalow" on the church grounds Wednesday afternoon.

The devotional exercises were led by Miss Emmaline Garrett of the Deaconess home and the president, Mrs. O. B. Hitterdahl, 628 Eighth street. A discussion of the purchase of a new flag for the church to take the place of one that was torn in the wind sometime ago was held in the business meeting.

Several petite performers presented the program following the business. Among them were June Rimsel who favored with a piano selection, Joe Hitterdahl, who gave a recitation, and the little "Rimsel twins" who also spoke their pieces.

FIFTY ONE NEW HOLES BEGUN IN WEEK

HUNTINGTON BEACH, March 23.—During the week ending March 17, fifty-one new wells were reported to the state oil and gas supervisor as ready to drill. This is a new record for drilling activity.

Forty-five notices covered proposed drilling operations in District No. 1, which includes all the oil fields of Los Angeles and Orange counties.

Need Storage Space.
Although drilling activity is apparently increasing in the newer fields of Southern California, recent reports indicate that the present volume of oil production is hazardously close to overreaching the maximum emergency accommodations of transportation and storage. With a total daily production of 630,000 barrels for the state—one hundred per cent increase over the production in 1918—new production to the extent of 20,000 barrels daily was shut in at Long Beach during the past week because of lack of storage at tidewater and delay in the arrival of necessary tankers which have been transporting California crude through the Panama canal to refineries on the Atlantic seaboard.

Field Yields Given.
The three southern fields are producing daily as follows: Huntington Beach, 113,400 barrels; Long Beach, 126,000 barrels (144,000 barrels for week ending March 10); and Santa Fe Springs, 155,800 barrels, of which 48,500 barrels is coming from the Bell zone and 107,300 barrels from the Meyer zone.

Production Hits Record.
The oil fields of California are not only producing record-breaking quantities of petroleum, which is being stored or sold, but they are also yielding immense quantities of natural gas and almost half of the total yield is being wasted. The total daily production of gas in the state is estimated at 580 million cubic feet and 275 million cubic feet is blowing into the air. The equivalent in heat value of 50,000 barrels daily of fuel oil is the price being paid in wasted gas for the present intensive development of petroleum in California.

The greatest waste is in the Long Beach oil field where about 190,000,000 cubic feet of gas roars into the air daily. Fifty million cubic feet is being wasted daily at Santa Fe Springs oil field; and 15 million cubic feet at the local field.

Thus the spectacle of congested oil derricks, gushers, stock jobbers and inexperienced operators pyramided as a dangerous load upon the serious business of petroleum production. It is further animated by the roar of wasting gas; poverty's tribute and sacrifice of an invaluable resource to our present greed.

Operations Increasing.
Oil field operations reported to State Oil and Gas Supervisor Colom last week show fifty-one new wells started, as compared with thirty-five during the previous week. The total new wells this year is 355, as compared with 261 the same date last year.

Tests for water shut-off this week numbered thirty-one, as compared with forty-four during the previous week. Yearly total to date, 383; total to same date last year, 305.

Deepening or redrilling jobs this week numbered eighteen, as compared with twenty during the preceding week. Total to date this year, 174; total to same date last year, 165.

Abandonments this week numbered six, as compared with three during the preceding week. Total to date this year, 51; total to same date last year, 69.

STUDENTS INVITED BY CAMPFIRE GIRLS
HUNTINGTON BEACH, March 23.—Tucked in the pocket of every school kiddie yesterday afternoon was an invitation to all the friends and patrons of the grammar school to the play "Happiness" to be presented by the Manaraha Camp Fire Girls tonight in the auditorium of the grammar school.

Finishing touches have been given to the setting and artistic interpretations to the acting of the young actresses during the last few days. No admission charge is being made, but the invitation slips read "Provision will be made for those who desire to contribute in a financial way."

Routine business was the program of the C. V. chapter of the P. E. O. which held its regular meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. G. Jones, 1906 Ocean avenue.

MUSICIANS FROM SANTA ANA PLAY
HUNTINGTON BEACH, March 23.—Santa Ana musicians will furnish the program for the regular meeting of the Woman's club, Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Hazel Launders Hummel, a lyric soprano, will be accompanied by Mrs. Ethel Troxel Thompson. A flutist, Walter O'Garra, will introduce a special feature into the afternoon's entertainment. Mrs. C. A. Johnson is chairman of the program. Mrs. Johnson is a local vocalist of talent.

RELIEF CORPS WOMEN GET 3 NEW MEMBERS

HUNTINGTON BEACH, March 23.—Three new names for membership were proposed at the regular meeting of the Woman's War Relief Corps in the Woman's Club house, Tuesday afternoon. They were Mrs. Ralph Lewis, Mrs. Richard Lewis and Mrs. Charles Leetch, all of Twenty-second street.

A "sewing circle" will be the feature of the next gathering. It was decided at the business meeting Tuesday afternoon, and will be held in the morning at the Woman's Club house, Tuesday, April 3, rather than at the customary afternoon hour.

The women of the corps welcomed back Mrs. Mary Thomas of Second street, who has been absent from the ranks for some time because of illness.

BUNGALOW SERIES STARTED AT BEACH

HUNTINGTON BEACH, March 23.—The Home Builders' bureau, under the local management of E. A. Biery, commenced the erection of the first of a series of modern bungalows on the corner of Orange and Fifteenth streets yesterday. Every possible built-in feature from the bed and dresser to the Hoosier cabinet and breakfast nook backed by a Butler's pantry, are included in the plans for these houses which will be opened for public inspection as little homes completed with every modern convenience.

P. O. Marston, superintendent of the Mutual Refining company, has been called to Kansas City by the serious illness of his mother. W. B. Park has come to the same company as a new employee.

Miss Bertha Proctor spent Thursday in Oceanside on business.

PICKS WILD FLOWERS.
HUNTINGTON BEACH, March 23.—Mrs. C. Frances Clark, of Eleventh street, is still enjoying some California poppies which she picked on a wild flower jaunt in Lankensheim early in the week.

Mrs. Clark returned with Miss Frances Benson to Highland Park, who spent the latter part of last week as a guest of Mrs. Clark to attend the high school performance of "The Mikado," in which she has appeared as a professional many times.

WILL VISIT SISTER.
HUNTINGTON BEACH, March 23.—A fortnight's visit with her sister, Mrs. Leona Jenks of Ventura, is the objective of a trip taken by Mrs. Cora Williams, 314 Eighth street, yesterday. While her mother is away, little Miss Alice Williams is the house guest of Mrs. May Jackson, 301 Thirteenth street.

MOTHER OF COUNTY RANCHER IS BURIED

WESTMINSTER, March 23.—Mr. and Mrs. George Murdock were called to Los Angeles Wednesday evening last week by the serious illness of Mr. Murdock's mother, Mrs. Green, who passed away at 6 o'clock Thursday evening, after an illness of over two weeks. She had for several years been a sufferer from asthma.

The funeral was held Saturday forenoon at Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Edwards and son, Rufus, and daughter, Nettie, came down from Elsinore Sunday, returning Monday.

F. J. Grandy attended the Michigan picnic in Los Angeles Saturday. He was accompanied home by his cousin, Miss Ida Marshall, of San Jose, who will remain for a visit.

Miss Florence Kerr spent a day at home last week. She is taking nurses' training at the California hospital.

Mrs. O. B. Byram attended the Presbyterian in Los Angeles Thursday and Friday and was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Mack near San Gabriel.

Mr. Andrew Stiffler left Sunday for Sedco, Riverside county, where he will have charge of the water system of the Sedco Land and Water company.

Miss Opal Stoves, who is employed in Santa Ana, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Stoves.

Mrs. Alma Abbott Moe was recently married in Huntington Park to Robert Davis of Beuna Park. They will reside at Anaheim.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Cawthon and family, including Misses Gertrude, Agnes and Ruth and Kenneth Cawthon, of Tustin, spent Sunday at the Reuben Edwards home.

Mrs. Mary Tilton and Mrs. Maden of Los Angeles called Sunday at the home of Mrs. Tilton's brother, H. B. Anderson.

Mrs. Phillip Wartenbe and baby with her mother, Mrs. Mary Tilton of Los Angeles, called Tuesday at the Anderson home.

RESTORES COLOR TO GRAY HAIR

Prof. John H. Austin, eminent hair and scalp specialist of Chicago, has discovered a preparation to restore the natural color, life and luster to gray and faded hair just as nature intended. This remarkable discovery is not a dye. It is just a clear, odorless, greaseless liquid without any injurious chemicals such as lead or sulphur. It will not wash or rub off. It is pleasing and simple to apply and cannot be detected like ordinary hair tints and dyes. This preparation is known as Co-Lo Hair Restorer and may be had for every natural shade of hair. A6 for black and all dark shades of brown; A7 for jet black; A8 for all medium brown shades; and A9 for all light brown, drab and auburn shades. Co-Lo is obtainable at druggists everywhere.—Adv.

STUDENTS INVITED BY CAMPFIRE GIRLS

HUNTINGTON BEACH, March 23.—Tucked in the pocket of every school kiddie yesterday afternoon was an invitation to all the friends and patrons of the grammar school to the play "Happiness" to be presented by the Manaraha Camp Fire Girls tonight in the auditorium of the grammar school.

Finishing touches have been given to the setting and artistic interpretations to the acting of the young actresses during the last few days. No admission charge is being made, but the invitation slips read "Provision will be made for those who desire to contribute in a financial way."

Routine business was the program of the C. V. chapter of the P. E. O. which held its regular meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. G. Jones, 1906 Ocean avenue.

MUSICIANS FROM SANTA ANA PLAY
HUNTINGTON BEACH, March 23.—Santa Ana musicians will furnish the program for the regular meeting of the Woman's club, Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Hazel Launders Hummel, a lyric soprano, will be accompanied by Mrs. Ethel Troxel Thompson. A flutist, Walter O'Garra, will introduce a special feature into the afternoon's entertainment. Mrs. C. A. Johnson is chairman of the program. Mrs. Johnson is a local vocalist of talent.

VETERANS TRY TO SAVE OLD OLYMPIA

PHILADELPHIA, March 23.—The famous battle cruiser Olympia, flagship of the United States fleet at the battle of Manila bay, lies in the lagoon at the Philadelphia navy yard waiting to be scrapped in accordance with the Washington limitation of arms conference. But the "harpies of the shore" may not destroy the "eagle of the seas," as the Association of Spanish War Veterans is preparing a petition to be sent to naval authorities in Washington requesting that the name of the Olympia be taken from the list of vessels about to be scrapped. The Spanish War Veterans desire that the ship be made a trophy vessel, such as the Constitution of 1812 fame and the Hartford, famous in Civil War annals. Should the ship be preserved, the Veterans hope to refit it with trophies awarded Admiral Dewey, and members of the crew will be placed aboard. A tablet stating that the body of the Unknown Soldier buried in the Arlington National Cemetery was brought from France on the Olympia has been removed from the ship for safe keeping. A bronze tablet presented to the ship by the citizens of Olympia, Wash., is still aboard the deserted vessel. On the tablet is depicted Victory and around it appears the immortal words: "Gridley, you may fire when you are ready" — spoken by Admiral Dewey to Captain Gridley on the morning of the battle, May 1, 1898. No flags today are flying from the Olympia's old fashioned mast stick. The hero ship lies in desolate abandonment between the North Carolina and the old St. Paul.

CARBON DIOXIDE TO BE USED TO COMBAT COAL MINE BLAZES

PITTSBURGH, March 22.—Science has given the mining industry a new method of fighting coal mine fires as the result of experiments conducted by the Bitner mine of the H. C. Frick Coke company near Connellsville. Chemists of the company, together with experts of Mellon institute of Pittsburgh, perfected a plan to use liquid carbon dioxide, the same gas used to charge soda fountains, in controlling the fire which developed in the Bitner mine, some months ago. In preparing for the experiment that portion of the mine after was isolated from other sections by brick walls and carbon dioxide discharged into the burning area. The first charge of gas was sent into the mine December 18. A small quantity still is being discharged but tests just made showed 78 degrees, the normal temperature of a coal mine room, it was announced.

MAN TO PAY DEARLY FOR DEER MEAT HE ROASTED AT PARTY

LOS ANGELES, March 23.—As the result of an investigation into a reported venison barbecue in the Antelope valley last Thanksgiving day, H. M. West, foreman of an oil company, who was said to have been the host at the gathering, has been arrested and fined for having venison in his possession out of season, according to Stuart J. Flintham, county game warden. The probe still under way today, it was stated, and efforts were being made to obtain a list of the guests at the feast and which it was said would include some of the most prominent residents of the valley. It was stated all guests faced arrest on charges similar to those preferred against Mr. West. Numerous cases of illegal hunting and shooting of ducks and deer out of season also were being investigated by a number of deputies from M. Flintham's office, and several arrests already have been made, it was stated.

WINE LOVER WILL RETURN TO ITALY

FRESNO, California, March 22.—Taking Justice Horace N. Caldwell at his word when told to "give up wine or leave the country," S. A. Oliver, a leader in the county's Italian colony, and a Custer colony rancher, is bound for a land where he can make and drink his wine. After four and one-half barrels of his wine had been destroyed by county agents following a raid on his cellar, and he had been taken before Justice Caldwell at Fowler and fined $300, and given a lecture by the judge on the Volstead act and the constitution, and respect thereto, Oliver says the judge told him: "Why not go to a country where you can drink your wine unmolested, if you must drink." The following day this advertisement appeared in the classified columns of local newspapers: "Listen: 'Laugh if you want. 'I don't care. 'I am Italian. I like wine and Mr. Volstead wants me to drink water. I won't do it. Just for that I sell my 20 acres, full bearing muscats, with a $5,000 new bungalow, all furnished; auto, fine team, tools, boxes, trays, for $12,500 on easy terms. Then I go to Mexico where I can drink what I please.' Twenty-five other Italians, all determined to follow the banner of Oliver and not Volstead, will join him in a pilgrimage to a proposed colony, at Gonzales, near Tampico, Mex., where Oliver says he will not be forbidden to crush, ferment, store and then drink the product of his own vines." New address, Shaw's Odorless Dry Cleaning, 614 W. 4th.

RADIO MUSIC NOT FOR PUBLIC HOUSES

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Public houses in England—the surviving representatives there of that American institution now extinct, the saloon—have been forbidden to install radio sets and regale their customers with concerts and beer simultaneously. The information came semi-officially to Washington for use of American manufacturers of radio apparatus, which market is to be thus circumscribed. Radio sets in public houses, the law justices at Manchester claim, turn them into a different type of entertainment places

MILLIONAIRE TYPIST STICKS TO HER MILL

BRECKINRIDGE, Tex., March 23.—Although Miss Elsie Hardin, 19, owns a large acreage in the Smackover oil fields in Arkansas, on which are two of the largest gushers of the district, she will continue to work in the county clerk's office here as a typist at $125 per month, she said today. She must either get a special license, the decision ran, or quit selling intoxicants. Lawyers for the publicans at the trial of the test case introduced an ancient precedent which allows a clarinet player to stick his horn through a public house door and play without the publican having a special permit, but the court ruled it out.

THE SANTA ANA REGISTER'S Bible Distribution COUPON

Two distinct styles of this wonderful Book of Books have been adopted for this great newspaper Bible distribution. One is the far-famed Red Letter Bible (Christ's sayings printed in red for immediate identification), and the Plain Print Bible for those who can spare but a nominal sum.

Only Three Coupons

Clip this coupon and two others and present or mail them to this paper with the sum set opposite either style, and come into possession of your Book of Books at once.

Style A—Red Letter Bible, over-lapping limp black leather covers, red edges, round corners, gold lettering, large, clear print, three coupons and only $1.98

Style B—Plain Print Bible, flush limp black seal grain textile leather cover, red edges, medium large type, strong and durable, three coupons and only 98c

Mail Orders: Send amount for Style A or Style B, with three of these coupons, and include 13 cents additional for postage, packing and insurance.

A Chance for Every Reader to Get a New Bible

Coupons are Ready

From now on, as long as this great offer lasts, a Bible Coupon is being printed in these columns daily. Three of those coupons will enable the holder to take advantage of our offer explained therein. The idea is to encourage Bible reading in order to overcome the world's unrest—a movement which is being sponsored by leading newspapers of this country. Make your selection early tomorrow—style A as shown in the accompanying illustration; or style B, which is less elaborately bound but just as complete and durable.

Wonderful Lessons in the Bible's English for Writers and Speakers

Shakespeare was master of nearly twenty thousand words. Milton of about thirteen thousand. But the whole King James Version of the Bible contains not over six thousand words; not a half of Milton's, not a third of Shakespeare's vocabulary.

Short words are always strong words; they explode like bullets. Do you know that the average word in the English Bible, including even the proper names, is composed of less than five letters? Leave out the proper names and the average word wouldn't have even four letters. In the beloved 23rd Psalm there are 119 words; 95 are words of one syllable. In the Sermon on the Mount more than 80 per cent are words of one syllable. In the Ten Commandments, on which are based all the laws of all the world, there are 319 words; 259 are words of one syllable; and only 60 of two and more syllables. In Lincoln's Address at Gettysburg, perhaps the greatest in the world, there are 266 words. Of these, 194 words are of one syllable; 53 of two syllables; and only 19 of three or more syllables.

There is food for thought in these figures. What an improvement in our writers and speakers, if, like Lincoln, they would only give study to the English of the Bible.

Santa Ana Daily Register's BIG OFFER TO ITS READERS

STYLE A—The large print, large size, Red Letter Edition, as illustrated, three coupons and only $1.98

STYLE B—The medium large print Edition, with all the Bible helps, but not so elaborately bound, three coupons and only 98c

DO FIGURES LIE? CHECK THESE OVER.

a new car, and you save more say $1000. The first trip out it depreciates 20%—$200 or more, leaving the value $750 to $800. Your old car is really worth about $500 and you are offered $250 to $300—another $200 to $250 loss making a total of at least $400. Now HALF of that amount spent on your old car will thoroughly overhaul and make it worth around $700; it will have no depreciation and will render service that you would not require of a new automobile costs you than you spend.

WINTERSBURG & SMELTZER.
Late word received by members of the Grana family from Carmel Grana who is a member of the crew of the U. S. S. California, now near Panama canal, where the fleet is now stationed for an indefinite time. He likes the Canal Zone very much and writes the boys are having a good time there.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Brush and daughter, Edith, spent Sunday at Huntington Beach as guests of Mrs. Brush's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Pierce.

All of the members of the Chris Nelson family are up again. For over two weeks the family has had influenza, six members at one time. Mr. Nelson and Lottie suffered from complications of the disease, the former having pneumonia and the latter quincy.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Taylor had as guests Sunday, the latter's brother, R. A. Campbell, his wife and baby of Huntington Beach, who came for a farewell visit before their departure for Burbank where they will make their home.

Mrs. Charles Parr is ill at her home with influenza. Her sister, Mrs. Georgia Holmes, of Westminster, is with her.

Mrs. L. Moldal with her daughter, Mrs. Edna Bentley of Anaheim motored to Los Angeles for the day, Thursday.

Mrs. R. Sartell of Los Angeles, a sister of Mrs. Jake Grana was a Sunday visitor at the Grana home. Mr. and Mrs. A. Steck entertained as Sunday guests at their home, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Onke of Los Angeles.

Mrs. George McGirk and children of Seal Beach visited Tuesday at the home of her mother, Mrs. A. J. Murdy at Smeltzer and in the afternoon all visited at the home of Mrs. Eva Beam. Dee McGirk remained over for a few days' visit with his grandparents.

Clinton Brush was reported as on the sick list the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Moldal entertained Sunday at their home. Mrs. Moldal's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Blodgett and family of Los Angeles.

Miss Bessie Grana is a patient at the Community hospital, Santa Ana, where she underwent a serious operation Friday of last week. Mrs. Frank Ulrich is able to be about again after an attack of influenza.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Turner and the former's brother, Harold, spent Sunday evening at Cypress as guests of Mrs. Turner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Wallace and family.

Mrs. Otis Taylor and baby daughter were at Huntington Beach Wednesday and in the evening she was joined by Mr. Taylor at the home of her brother, R. A. Campbell, where they were dinner guests.

Miss Ethel Burns who is in training for a nurse at the St. Vincent hospital, Los Angeles, made a flying trip Sunday, to the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Murdy at Smeltzer.

Eugene Edward was a dinner guest Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Edwards.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Isenor, daughters, Mary and Clarice, motored to Pasadena and Eagle Rock Sunday, leaving Miss Ethel at the latter city where she is a student at Occidental college. The Isenors were accompanied on the trip by Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Wells and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Woodington and son, Donald, were at Torrance for the day Sunday as guests of the former's brother, W. W. Woodington and family.

Members of the chorus which is to furnish special music for the Easter services to be held at the Wintersburg Methodist church are meeting frequently at the church to practice for the event.

Harold Jones substituted as leader of the Junior Y. M. C. A. boys' class at their usual Tuesday evening meeting this week, the regular leader, Charles Mallett, being on the sick list.

WINTERSBURG AND SMELTZER, March 23.—A pleasant dinner party was given Sunday at the Paul Duc home when Mrs. Duc entertained in honor of the seventy-ninth birthday anniversary of her mother, Mrs. Rosalie Provonsall. A large birthday cake adorned the prettily appointed table where covers were laid for the honoree, Mrs. Provonsall, her daughter, Mrs. Rosalie Lambert, of Los Angeles, who was a guest for the day, and Mr. and Mrs. Duc and their two children.

—You can buy it at "Your Most Popular Trading Center!"

Watch Our Smoke!

A hen is not supposed to have much common sense or tact. Yet every time she lays an egg. She cackles forth the fact. A rooster hasn't got a lot of intellect to show. But none the less most roosters have enough good sense to crow. The male, the most despised of beasts. Of letting folks know he's around.

Has a persistent way. By his insistent bray. The busy little bees they buzz. Bulls bellow and cows moo. The watchdogs bark, the ganders quack. The doves and pigeons coo. The peacock spreads his tail and squawks. Pigs squeal and robins sing. And even serpents know enough To hiss before they sting. But man, the greatest masterpiece That nature could devise. Will often stop and hesitate. Before he'll advertise!

COUNTRY CLUB FOLK TO GET ACQUAINTED*New, Old Members to Join In Match Over Local Course Tomorrow

With the aim of making it possible for many of the new members of the golfing organization to become better acquainted with those who have been associated for a longer time, tomorrow will be "Get-Acquainted Day" at the Orange County Country club, President C. G. Twist announced today.

Two captains will be chosen. President Twist said, and these leaders will select two teams to play each other over the eighteen-hole course.

At the same time it was announced that the regular Saturday ball sweepstakes will be held tomorrow and in addition a flag tournament for which the club will donate suitable prizes.

Members of the club were interested today in the announcement that actual work on the new course to be constructed at Newport Heights will begin probably late next week.

"We are almost ready to start operations," Twist said. "As soon as the final papers are signed for the site and a few other matters attended to, we will be in a position to start breaking ground for the course."

"We would like to impress on members and those who contemplate joining the organization that no dues for the new course will be payable until the ground is ready for play."

With the approach of summer the club's social affairs are already being planned. On the first Thursday after Easter Mr. and Mrs. Edward McWilliams will be host and hostess at a clubhouse dance. Two weeks later, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Mater will be host and hostess at a card party. Regular social functions will follow on the first and third Thursday of the month. During the summer the club, as in the past, will hold its ladies' day on Saturday afternoons.

SEATTLE CLUB SALE WAS SQUARE, CLAIM

LOS ANGELES, March 23.—Defending his new employer from charges of being unduly interested in the purchase of the Seattle baseball club by "Red" Killefer and Charles Lockard, both formerly employed by William Wrigley, Oscar Reichow, newly appointed business manager for the Los Angeles club, said today the investigation under way by President W. H. McCarthy of the coast league would disclose everything to be above board and beyond reproach.

"Few coast league baseball men have appreciated what Charlie Lockard is really worth," Reichow said. "He has been able for some time to lay his hands on $125,000 on a moment's notice."

"When President McCarthy investigates the purchasing of the Seattle club I think he'll find that Killefer and Lockard handled the deal with their own cash," Reichow declared.

OF ALL SORTS

With a nice country home, a comfortable fortune and everything that a man should want when he reaches the age for retirement John McGraw continues the arduous duties of handling a champion ball club.

The "little Napoleon" of the diamond must be tired of sleeping cars, fed up on hotel food and hardened to the thrills and romances of the game. Twenty-five years of stiff going in an exacting game where it takes youth to hold out, ought to make a veteran of a man in heart and bone.

McGraw must have some reason for sticking at a grind that must be tiresome most of the time. He must have some ambition beyond the mere making of dollars.

He must be inspired by some great desire and from the change in his policies, it may be that "Mac" wants the name of McGraw perpetuated for all times and have himself recorded as the greatest of all baseball managers.

McGraw used to buy, but he is building now. He used to be one, with the attitude that today is the day and let tomorrow take care of itself. Now he is working both ends.

With just a few exceptions, the great Giant club which McGraw will start as a favorite in the 1923 pennant race came "ready-to-wear" off the market. It stands a great ball club this year and it is not at the cracking point, although the veterans outnumber the youngsters in the regular lineup.

McGraw apparently is working on the theory that his infield, the great combination that made the Yanks look sick in the last world's series, hasn't long to go and he is grooming another combination to step up when Groh, Bancroft and Kelly have to step down.

No other ball club has in the making an infield to compare with McPhee, Princeton third baseman; Jackson, Little Rock shortstop; Fred Maguire, Holy Cross second baseman, and Jimmy O'Connell, St. Mary's first baseman, who is also a $75,000 outfielder.

With three or four major league clubs, that infield would be regular workers but McGraw doesn't need them right now and all the time, with the strict personal direction that McGraw carries out, they will be learning as they sit on the bench.

Sport Flashes

Stanford's track team will leave here tonight for Los Angeles where it will engage in a dual meet tomorrow with the University of Southern California. Coach Templeton said: "If I have to make a guess it will be that the meet will be a mighty close affair."

BALTIMORE, Md.—Jack Bentley, Baltimore pitcher, who was sold to the New York Giants for $65,000, was to leave today to join McGraw's team in San Antonio.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa.—"Bill" Stevenson, former Princeton star and National quarter mile champion, who is now a student at Oxford, may be on the track team which Oxford is sending to the United States on April 14 for the Penn relays, according to information received by the management.

PHILADELPHIA—William Tilden II, national tennis champion, will leave for Bermuda next Wednesday to play a special match with the champion of the island, Sandy Weiner, "Big Bill's" protege, will accompany the star on the trip.

Beach All-Around Athlete Expected To Star Tomorrow

ROSS NICHOLS,

Huntington Beach track star, who is expected to be a big factor in the Tri-County meet at the seaside city tomorrow afternoon. Nichols has recovered from a recent injury and Huntington Beach fans expect him to annex numerous digits for Ray Walker's cohorts.

SANTA ANA DIAMOND MEN HOOK UP WITH HUNTINGTON BEACH

In its second game of the Orange league season, Coach Orton Meff's Santa Ana high school baseball team this afternoon clashed with the Huntington Beach high school aggregation at the beach city field.

While Santa Ana was believed to have the edge, the game was expected to be close. In two practice frays early in the season the Poly and the Huntington Beach nines broke even.

"Barney" Le Bard, star right-hander, was scheduled to go to the mound for the locals. "Chick" Brown was expected to catch his slants in the absence of Ted Coffman who is recovering from a long siege with the flu.

PATHFINDERS TRIM BLACK WOLF FIVE

The Pathfinders found the hoop with more regularity than the Black Wolf's and hung up a 21 to 15 victory in the only game played in the Senior Y. M. C. A. basketball league on the local 'Y' courts last night.

The scheduled tie between the Too-Tees and the T. N. T. quintets was forfeited by the Too-Tees.

The lineup:
Black Wolves Pathfinders
Cook F Harless
Golden F L. Hill
Young C Bell, Doerr
Spicer G C. Hill
Norman G French

FRENCH BOXER HERE FOR KILBANE BOUT

NEW YORK, March 23.—Eugene Criqui may never have heard in his native French the old gag of how the cup is inclined to slip but he will get the full American effect of the logic when he arrives here today.

The French featherweight champion comes here with the desire and a good contract to fight Johnny Kilbane for the world's championship. Kilbane and a large number of customers are willing that the Frenchman be accommodated but the boxing commission is out with a negative nod of the head.

Since William Muldoon tired of the dilatory tactics of the Cleveland Irishman and threw him in the pugilistic guardhouse, Johnny Dundee, the junior lightweight champion, has been looked on as the world's featherweight titleholder of New York.

Kilbane hasn't a license here but that is through no workings of the commission. Johnny took the position that the commission could not tell him how to run his own business and he never applied for one of its permits to fight in New York.

Tom O'Rourke signed up Kilbane and Criqui and when this little hitch arose, Tex Rickard was quick to take an indirect slap at his hated rival. He dashed right out and got the first call on Johnny Dundee's services and announced that he would promote a Dundee-Criqui bout.

Criqui has done some very good fighting since the war. He has run up an impressive list of knockouts since he left the service. It is said that a shell took away part of his jaw when he was at the front and that the bone was replaced with aluminum which gives him a virtual iron jaw.

POLY CONCEDED OUTSIDE CHANCE TO WIN
TRI-COUNTY CLASSIC AT H. B. TOMORROW

With 125 athletes, including many of state-wide notoriety, entered and with the track in the best of condition so that several new records may be hung up before the close of the relay race, indications today were that a record-breaking crowd will swarm to Huntington Beach tomorrow afternoon for the annual Tri-County track meet between the high school athletes of various cities in Orange, San Bernardino and Riverside counties.

Although conceded by the experts only an outside chance for victory, fifteen members of the Santa Ana high school track team, in good trim for the most part, will enter the struggle and are expected to give the local school a good number of points.

Names Poly Entrants.
Those named today by Coach Ray Adkinson as entrants were Captain Roland Babe, sprints and hurdles; Earl Jabs, weights; Henry Dungan, weights; Lloyd Morris, weights and high jump; Anderson weights; Bob Lancaster, sprints; Lutz, hurdles; Redmond, hurdles; Arnold Stroschein, sprints; Bob Vawter, distances; Dorris Meyers, distances; Hustis Snow, distances; Otto Gardner, hurdles; Randolph Bell, high jump, and Lorraine Bove, high jump.

Santa Ana's chief hopes for a win were believed to rest with the chance of some of the outside teams cutting into the Huntington Beach and the San Bernardino first place columns.

The crack Huntington Beach squad, with such all-around stars as Milt Nash in the sprints, Ross Nichols in the hurdles and jumps, Charlie Bickmore in the hurdles, weights and jumps and Elliott in the broad jump, is certain to be a dangerous contender.

Training Camp Tabs

SAN ANTONIO Texas—Two rookie pitchers, Walberg and Webb, let the San Antonio Texas league club down with five hits and the Giants won, 18 to 5.

NEW ORLEANS—Babe Ruth smacked out a homer but his side lost when Miller Huggins played two teams of Yankees regulars and rookies.

SEGUIN, Texas—With Eddie Collins, king of second sackers and Willie Kamm, the $100,000 third baseman, in the line up for the first time this year, the Chicago White Sox were ready for the renewal of their spring series with the New York Giants at San Antonio today.

LOS ANGELES—The Chicago Cubs arrived here today for a series of three games, two with Vernon today and tomorrow

FIGHT RESULTS

NEWARK, N. J.—Mickey Walker, welterweight champion, widely outpointed Pete Latzo, Scranton challenger, in a 12 round no decision bout. Latzo was floored once.

MCKEESPORT, Pa.—Cuddy Demarco, Charleroi, won a ten round decision from Blockie Richards, Dayton.

SAN MATEO, Calif.—Joe Coffey was given the decision in a speedy four round bout with Eddie Gorman here last night.

and one with Los Angeles Sunday.

AUGUSTA, Ga.—Ty Cobb's Detroit Tigers won their first pre-season game yesterday, defeating Augusta 6 to 5.

WORTH WEIGHT IN GOLD SAYS MRS. LITTLEFIELD

Declares Tanlac Ended Indigestion, Nervousness and Weakness and She Gained over 30 Pounds—Loved Ones Also Benefited.

The value of Tanlac as a family medicine and tonic is again very forcibly demonstrated in the home of Mrs. Laura Littlefield of 1011 Aileen Ave., Oakland, Cal. Mrs. Littlefield states that the treatment has not only restored her health but has increased her weight from scarcely more than a hundred to one hundred and fifty pounds, and that her husband, her mother and her little girl have also taken it with splendid results. Here is her statement:

"My friends are all congratulating me on my wonderful new health, and I am always happy to tell them that Tanlac deserves every bit of the credit."

"For some time before I began taking the treatment I had been in a badly run-down condition and had no energy at all. I must have gotten very little nourishment from my food, for I was continually losing weight, and had fallen off to where I weighed scarcely more than a hundred pounds. My nerves were very bad too, and my sleep was so restless that I would get up mornings feeling as tired as when I retired at night. In fact I just felt fatigued and listless all the time.

"The Tanlac treatment certainly did me a world of good. That tired worn-out feeling left me entirely, and I kept gaining in weight until I have now reached one hundred and fifty pounds. My nerves are in splendid condition, and I sleep like a child at night. I have never enjoyed better health in my life than I have since taking Tanlac. My husband, my mother and my little girl have also taken the medicine with splendid results and we all think it is worth its weight in gold."

Tanlac is for sale by all druggists—take no substitute. Over 36 million bottles sold.—Adv.

FLOWER SEEDS

Now is an excellent time to plant a great variety of flower seeds. We have, for instance, the Giant Mixed Zinnia, in 15c packets or in double packets at 25c, which makes a most delightful addition to ones garden. It grows tall, is easily handled, and has blossoms sometimes five or six inches in diameter. It should not be confused with the old-fashioned small zinnia. Try them this year.

ORANGE COUNTY NEWS

FINE BUILDING FOR MAIIS IS SEEN NEAR

FULLERTON, March 23.—With the passage of a bill that will carry sufficient funds for building purposes, Fullerton will have a new postoffice.

This was the statement of Congressman Phil Swing in Fullerton, where he stopped for a few minutes with the members of the congressional delegation that for 48 hours were the guests of Orange county and has brought to an end a trip of thousands of miles through the United States on a study of irrigation problems, and in behalf of the great $70,000,000 Colorado river irrigation project.

Swing favors Harbor. "First of all," said Congressman Swing, "I am in favor of such project of development as the proposed Newport Harbor and such that will bring revenue to the district which I represent, then the federal buildings. At this time it is difficult to tell just when an appropriation will be made but Fullerton will not be forgotten when the time comes."

As guests of a dozen Fullerton citizens and an equal number from Anaheim the congressional party of 40 this morning was taken on a tour of Northern Orange county which ended at the Santa Fe station where the party entrained for Los Angeles.

County is Toured. The auto tour started at St. Ann's Inn, from whence a short trip was made through the Tustin orange districts, and then to Fullerton. Here the party was taken through the high school building and up Golden Hill where a stop was made for a view of the surrounding country. All were warm in their praise of the beauty of the northern end of the county.

Those who acted as hosts to the visiting colon were: William Irwin, R. T. Davies, C. C. Chapman, Angus McAuley, F. C. Krause, William Knepp, R. S. Gregory and W. J. Carmichael. At the Santa Fe station, Dale King, manager of the Northern Orange County Citrus association, presented the visitors with a case of Orange county's choicest citrus products, and the women of the party with great bouquets of fresh cut orange blossoms.

FULLERTON, March 23.—W. J. Black, passenger traffic manager of the Santa Fe with headquarters in Chicago, accompanied by James B. Duffy of Los Angeles, general passenger agent, and other officials of the railroad, in Fullerton on a tour of inspection, were surprised to find this city making such rapid growth. They also reported that the Santa Fe's business is showing a steady increase here month after month.

With an increase of 20 per cent in the travel over the company's lines to this state from the east and middle west during the past winter season and the best outlook for such improved business the coming summer, Black predicts unbounded prosperity throughout the west during the year 1923.

That the agricultural conditions of the country give promise of greater returns for this year, he said reports received by him showed an increase in the sales of agricultural implements for January, 1923, amounting to 65 per cent over the same month last year.

The building activities during the month, he said, particularly in the San Joaquin valley and Southern California, showed an increase of 15 per cent over the same period of 1922. A dozen cities reported building permits aggregating $22,000,000 for the month.

OLD SCHOOLHOUSE IN ORANGE TO BE MOVED BY COMPANY

ORANGE, March 23.—The Kress House Moving company, of Los Angeles has been awarded the contract for moving the old central building of the high school group from its position in front of the new auditorium building.

Built in 1904 as the first unit of the high school group which now consists of five buildings, the old building is to be retired to the north side of the school grounds where it will occupy a site facing on Orange street.

The cost of moving will be $387 and the work will begin at the close of the present school year. Plans for some remodeling of the old building after it has been moved are under consideration.

METHODIST WORKERS ASK FUNDS FOR SITE

FULLERTON, March 23.—Persistent canvass of the entire congregation of the First M. E. church is being made by committees in an effort to raise soon, the $25,000 needed to cover the cost of the site for the new Methodist church in the block between Commonwealth and Amerigo avenues on North Pomona, and expenses already incurred in connection with the preliminary arrangements for its construction.

The congregation is divided into 12 sections with the following persons heading each division: 1—A. W. Daniel and D. H. Goodwin; 2—F. P. Taggart and Don S. Haskett; 3—S. W. Smith and O. M. Thompson; 4—S. W. McCulloch and S. W. Douglas; 5—William Starbuck and L. B. Steward; 6—A. M. Thompson and A. A. McCormick; 7—H. W. Schultz and Earl Mathis; 8—Dick Burdett and Ernest Stone; 9—T. J. Asten and S. W. Miller; 10—R. L. Chambers and W. S. Frid; 11—Ralph G. Rohrer and O. H. Jencks; and 12—J. H. Daniel and George Key.

ORANGE BOY IS INJURED BY FAST CAR

ORANGE, March 23.—Buster Melton, a former Orange boy now living in Los Angeles, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Melton, was injured Sunday evening when hit by an automobile as he was getting off a street car in front of his home. His mother saw the accident and he was rushed to a hospital. He received bad cuts and bruises on face, head, arms and legs. The occupants of the car made their escape without being identified.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Kneisel of North Shaffer street spent Wednesday in Fullerton as guests of their daughter, Mrs. William Dreyer, and family. Mrs. Kneisel has been ill for a long time and this was the first time she had been able to be away from home for a long time.

F. C. Drumm, K. E. Watson, J. R. Porter, E. W. Bolinger, and W. E. Clement are home from their five days trip to San Francisco and Monterey.

Mrs. Grace Kelsey and Mrs. Laddaball, of Los Angeles, prohibition department workers, were guests Wednesday of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Payne.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Whitely are moving to Brea where Mr. Whitely is employed as agent for the Pacific Electric.

O. D. Matthews of North Glassell street is out again after a ten days struggle with bronchitis and neuralgia.

Miss Mary Chastain who has been ill the last week with influenza is slowly improving.

Mrs. Pealer who resides at the Parsons apartments is on the sick list.

OPERETTA WILL BE GIVEN TONIGHT BY ORANGE STUDENTS

ORANGE, March 23.—The annual operetta given at the Orange high school is scheduled for Friday evening, with the Girls Glee Club presenting, "In India," using a cast of sixty-one pretty Hindu girls.

An effort has been made to secure a real monkey, and snake for the affair.

The scene is laid in Fishni, India, on the Ganges River, and will be very colorful and beautiful in costume.

The Glee Club has worked faithfully for the past three months on the production, according to teachers at the high school in charge of the rehearsals. Tickets may be obtained at the box office of the high school.

SYMPHONY PLAYERS TO PLAY AT SCHOOL

FULLERTON, March 23.—Marking one of the biggest events ever staged in this city, the Los Angeles Philharmonic orchestra of 86 musicians, directed by Walter Henry Rothwell, will be presented Wednesday evening, March 28, under the auspices of the Fullerton Junior college, in the high school auditorium.

Anticipating a capacity crowd at the performance, the students have divided the auditorium into sections to facilitate the seating of the audience. It is expected that the demand for seats will be so great as to make the opening of the choral hall imperative. The acoustic properties of the hall have been tested to determine how best to divide the building into sections.

Kellogg's Bran is ALL BRAN —that's why it relieves constipation!

Half-way measures mean nothing to the man, woman or child whose very existence is threatened by the habitual clogging of the elimination channels. Foods with only part bran can never clean and sweep the intestines in the nature-way as does Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled.

And, Kellogg's Bran is as delicious in flavor as it is positive in its action. If it is eaten regularly—two table-spoonfuls daily; in chronic cases, with each meal—it will permanently relieve the most aggravated case.

Your health will be greatly improved within a brief period if you will eat this delicious Kellogg cereal. Knew what Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, will do for you and for your loved ones. There is no time to be lost in getting the relief that Kellogg's Bran assures.

Kellogg's Bran is delightful as a cereal, sprinkled over any hot or cold cereal, or served in countless appetizing ways in baking and cooking. It makes the best sort of pancakes, muffins, raisin bread, macaroons, etc., you ever ate. And, each mouthful contributes to health! Kellogg recipes are printed on each package. Kellogg's Bran works for you all the time! Your physician will recommend Kellogg's Bran for constipation.
